OREGON LEGISLATURE.

EIGHTH BIENNIAL SESSION.

[Phonographically reported for the Oregonian.]

Senate—Morning Session.

SALEM, October 21, 1874.

On motion of Mr. WATSON the rules were suspended and reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

Mr. MYERS, from the select committee to which was referred H. B. 29, the bill proving for times of holding County and Circuit Courts, [illegible] the same back with amendments and recommended its passage. The amendments were adopted.

Mr. BRALY, from the Joint Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred, the Corvallis and Yaquina Railroad bill, reported the same back with amendments, which strikes out the words "swamp and overflowed lands" and inserts "tide and marsh lands," all of which, within the county of Benton, are granted in aid of the construction of the road, and recommended the adoption of the amendments and the passage of the bill.

On motion of Mr. LEE the rules were suspended and the bill was read third time and passed. Ayes, 19; noes, 4. Those voting no were Crystal, Myers, Owens, Tolin.

Absent—Cornelius, Dolph, Hanna, Richardson, VanCleave, Wisdom.

On motion of Mr. MYERS the rules were suspended and H. B. 29 was read third time [illegible]

Mr. HALEY, from the Committee on [illegible], to which was referred S. J. R. 22, introduced by Mr. OWENS, authorizing the Secretary of State to cancel the judgment against S. E. May and sureties, reported that in consequence of the limited time allowed for examination of the matter, the Committee were not entirely [illegible] of the [illegible] of the resolution, but were inclined to the opinion that the judgment should be canceled.

Messrs. CORNELIUS and WATSON advocated the passage of the resolution, and Messrs. COCHRAN (Townsend having been called to the Chair), and MYERS spoke against the resolution.

The resolution was adopted.

Absent—Oifield, Richardson and Wisdom—3.

On motion of Mr. MYERS the rules were suspended and H. B. 97, in reference to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, was taken up and read. Under suspension of the rules, the bill was read second time. The bill was amended in some unimportant particulars, after which the rules were further suspended, and the bill was read third time and passed—only one Senator voting no.

The bill as amended and passed, repeals the act giving the Clerk a salary; allows the Court to fix the amount of his per diem for attendance on the Court, and leaves the fees as under the present law. It also provides that the Clerk shall be appointed by the Court to hold his office during their pleasure, and that the Clerk shall not be permitted to practice as an attorney in that Court, while holding the office.

Adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

Mr. [illegible], by unanimous consent, withdrew from [illegible] the [illegible] of [illegible] & Co., proposing to lease rooms to the State for the [illegible] of [illegible] the same to the other House.

On motion of Mr. WEBSTER the rules were suspended and S. B. 98, amending the act providing for the sale of tide and overflowed lands on the sea shore and coast was taken up, read third time and [illegible]

A communication from the House informed the Senate that the House was ready to receive them pursuant to S. J. R. 22, for the purpose of electing such [illegible] as are required to be elected by such Convention.

On motion the Senate took a recess until such time as it may be called together by the Chair, for the purpose of allowing the Sergeant-at-Arms to remove the chairs to the hall of the House.

Shortly after [illegible] the [illegible] of the President called the Senators to order when the Sergeant-at-Arms conducted them in a body to the hall of the House.

The Senate resumed at 6 o'clock.

The PRESIDENT arose and stated to the Senate that he had received dispatches from home during the afternoon [illegible] him that one of his children had been very dangerously scalded and was in a critical condition, which would preclude him from meeting with the Senate again. The Senate will have to make some arrangements to fill the position I occupy, as I shall be on my way to my home before you will [illegible] again. Before leaving you, unexpectedly as it is, and under these sad circumstances, I will say to you that our [illegible], at least so far as my feelings are concerned, have been of the most agreeable character, and I feel proud that I have been associated with gentlemen for whom I have so high a regard and so much respect. This is perhaps the last time that we will all meet together, and I wish to say that every Senator will take with him my very best wishes. I shall consider myself under lasting obligations for the forbearance that has been shown and the assistance that has been rendered me in the discharge of my duties, and I cannot leave you without saying that I am proud that I have had the honor to preside over a Senate composed of gentlemen of such worth and honor.

Mr. WATSON [illegible] the following [illegible], which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate are hereby tendered to the President for the able, efficient and impartial manner in which he has discharged the duties of presiding officer.

On motion of Mr. DOLPH, indefinite leave of absence was granted to Mr. Cochran.

Adjourned.

House—Morning Session.

The House met at 8 o'clock A. M.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Committee on Elections reported back H. B. 88, for the election of Prosecuting Attorney.

Mr. CRANSTON moved to indefinitely postpone.

Mr. MAYS—This bill is important, and provides that each county, with the exception of the smaller ones, [illegible] elect a Prosecuting Attorney. This bill will enable each county to have a resident Prosecuting Attorney at its county seat, while under the [illegible] law [illegible] the attorney finds an accumulation of business, without any information as to its merits. Every material interest of the county requires that there should be a resident Prosecuting Attorney, and he hoped the bill would pass.

Mr. BRADSHAW thought this was a meritorious bill, and should pass. He was satisfied no bill presented during this session was of more importance than this. He thought some amendments were needed. The salary provided is only $100 per annum. This is no compensation at all. It is true it is a slight saving to the State, but he was not in favor of paying less than the services were worth. He hoped the bill would be amended so that the counties will pay this officer a salary. His duties will be better performed than ever before, and it would be unwise to reduce the compensation.

On motion of Mr. MAYS, the bill was referred to a special committee of three for amendment.

The SPEAKER appointed as such committee: Messrs. Mays, Bradshaw and McClung.

A majority of the Joint Committee on Retrenchment and Reform reported back H. B. 88, in relation to the election of Superintendent of Penitentiary by the [illegible], with a recommendation that it do pass.

Messrs. GALLOWAY and TOWNSEND presented a minority report recommending that the bill do not pass.

Mr. GALLOWAY also asked leave to present the report of the Special Committee on H. B. 104, which provides for the election of a Superintendent by the people at the election in 1876, so that the House might have both bills before them at the same time. The report recommended the adoption of amendments to make the salary $1,800, and to strike out the words repealing section 10 of the existing law under which the Superintendent draws his present salary. The amendments were adopted in their order.

Mr. STEEN thought the House did not know what they were doing when they passed the second amendment. If this bill should pass the Superintendent would draw salary under both sections and would get $3,600 per annum. He was of opinion the House did not intend that, and he moved to reconsider. The motion prevailed and the amendment was lost.

A motion by Mr. BROWN to lay the bill on the table was lost, and on motion of Mr. FIDLER it was considered engrossed and made the special order for 11 o'clock this forenoon.

The Committee on Ways and Means reported back H. B. 30, to define the duties and fix the pay of the agent of the Board of School Land Commissioners, with amendments striking out the clause providing for giving the agent fees; adding a section providing that the agent should receive no other pay whatever than as provided in the bill, and making the act take effect on its approval by the Governor.

On motion of Mr. STANNARD the amendments were adopted and the bill was ordered engrossed and read third time to-morrow.

Mr. STEARNS, from the Committee on Commerce, reported back H. B. 77, to provide a standard of weights and measures, without recommendation. The bill was referred to a special committee consisting of Cranston, Lee and Stearns.

Mr. LAUGHLIN, from the Committee on Roads and Highways, reported back H. B. 106, to provide for the construction of a wagon road from the mouth of the Nehalem river to Clatsop Plains, with a recommendation that it do not pass. On motion of Mr. BROWN, ordered to third reading to-morrow.

The same committee on H. B. 100, in relation to the manner of laying out public roads in certain cases, reported that the Senate had already passed a bill of similar character, and therefore recommended that this bill do not pass. The bill was laid on the table.

The same committee reported in reference to the petition of citizens of Coos county, asking an appropriation of $200,000 for the construction of a wagon road from the north fork of Coos river to Clayton's ferry on the Umpqua river, that the proposed means were meritorious, because the location is isolated and they are cut off from communication with the outside by almost insuperable obstacles; but on account of the depleted condition of the Treasury, at the present time they recommend that the petition be not granted. The petition was laid on the table.

Mr. LEDGERWOOD, from the Committee on Counties, reported back H. B. 70, to tax dogs, with recommendation that it do not pass. Ordered to a third reading to-morrow.

Mr. JACKSON, from the Committee on Claims reported back H. B. 46, for the relief of Douglas county, without amendment.

A motion by Mr. RIDDLE, to suspend the rules and put the bill on its final passage was lost, and the bill was ordered to a third reading to-morrow.

The majority of the same committee reported back H. B. 105, for the relief of Settlemeir and Kale, with recommendation that it pass. The bill was ordered to a third reading to-morrow.

The Judiciary Committee reported back H. B. 111, in relation to the sale of land by executors and administrators, recommending that it pass.

On motion of Mr. DULLY, the rules were suspended and the bill put on its final passage and passed by a vote of 50 to 2—Mr. Riddle and Mr. Speaker voting no.

The Judiciary Committee reported back H. B. 82, to amend sec. 4 of chap 36 of miscellaneous laws, in regard to insane persons, recommending the passage of accompanying substitute, which was read, and on motion laid on the table.

The same committee also reported back H. B. 92, in relation to supervisors of roads, with an amendment striking out the words "providing that Supervisors shall hold office until the following term of the County Court."

On motion of Mr. BLAKE the rules were suspended and the bill put on its final passage and passed without dissent. The title of the bill was changed so as to refer to chapter 50 of title of one of general laws.

SENATE BUSINESS.

A message informed the House that the Senate had [illegible] H. B. 90 (the Winnemucca bill), also S. B. 108, re-districting the State for Senatorial and Representative purposes. The bill was read, and on motion of Mr. FIDLER the rules were suspended and the bill read a second time by title.

On motion of Mr. RINEARSON the bill was referred to a special committee of three, with instructions to report at any time. The Speaker appointed as such committee Messrs. Rinearson, Chambers and Plymale.

The SPEAKER stated that he was in error in deciding that the motion to suspend the rules and put H. B. 46 (for the relief of Douglas County), on its passage was lost. He had been under the impression that such a motion required a majority of all the members. Further examination showed that a majority of all the members present could do so. The rules were therefore suspended and the bill put on its passage and passed 31 to 21.

S. B. 52—To contract with certain railroad companies for the transportation of State troops and munitions of war, and convicts to the penitentiary, was read first time.

THE STATE CAPITOL BILL.

Mr. GALLOWAY called up H. B. 48, which was made the special order for 10 o'clock this morning. The question being "Shall the bill pass?" resulted as follows:

Yeas—Bradshaw, Chandler, Cornell, Cranston, Darst, Doak, Dully, Fidler, Galloway, Gilbert, Hays, Jackson, Johnson, Kelly of Multnomah, Laughlin, [illegible]wood, Matlock, Mathieu, McClung, [illegible], [illegible], Reed of Clackamas, Reed of Marion, [illegible], Roe, Scott, Shedd, Shelton, Simpson, [illegible], Van Riper, Wilson, Wright of Jackson, [illegible]

[illegible]—Brown, Bruce, Butler, Chambers, Curl, [illegible], Dufur, Florence, Gearin, Kelly of [illegible], Lee, Mays, Partlow, Riddle, Ross, Stearns, [illegible], Stump, Wasson, Wright of Union and Mr. Speaker—22.

So the bill passed.

S. B. 71—To amend the Act providing for a code of civil procedure, under suspension of the rules was read first and second time by title.

On motion of Mr. GALLOWAY the bill was referred to a special committee of three, with instructions to report at any time.

The CHAIR appointed as such committee Messrs. Galloway, Gearin and Chambers.

ELECTION OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PENITENTIARY.

Mr. GALLOWAY called up H. B. 104, to provide for the election of Superintendent.

Mr. MAYS desired to offer an amendment in the shape of a proviso, allowing this Legislature to elect a Superintendent to hold until the election in 1876. He believed this Legislature wished to enact such a bill as this, and also that they wanted to elect a Superintendent to hold until such time as the people could vote upon the subject. But he would be compelled to vote against the bill unless the proviso was incorporated in it.

Mr. GALLOWAY objected to the amendment and said his reason for doing so was that he was opposed to the Legislature going into elections [illegible] they always have more business than they can do. He further intimated his belief that even if such a provision should pass both Houses it would not become a law. He did not pretend to speak for the Governor nor for anybody. He simply gave his views.

Mr. CHAMBERS called attention to the fact that there was no enacting clause in the bill. It had gone too far to be amended, except by unanimous consent, and he would object.

Mr. RIDDLE believed this was a filibustering bill anyhow, and had been introduced solely for the purpose of defeating another bill.

On motion of Mr. FIDLER, it was referred to a special committee of three for amendment.

S. B. 113—to provide for the construction of the Wallamet Valley and Coast Railroad, was read first and second times, under suspension of the rules, and referred to a special committee with instructions to report at any time. The CHAIR appointed Messrs. Chambers, Brown and Kelly as such committee.

The special committee on H. B. 104 having reported back said bill with amendments it came up on its final passage, the vote being as follows:

Nays—Blake, Crawford, Mays, McGugin, Noyer—5.

Absent—Jewett, Mathieu, Stott—3.

So the bill passed.

Mr. RIDDLE—I move to amend the title of the bill so as to read "A bill to continue Bill Watkinds in office for the ensuing two years." [Laughter.]

The SPEAKER—The motion is out of order.

On motion of Mr. FIDLER, the House adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

The House resumed at 1:30 P. M., on the order of the day for the consideration of H. B. 88 (Mr. Mays), providing for the election of a Superintendent of the Penitentiary by the present Legislature. The bill was referred to a special committee to make certain amendments.

The committee to whom the weights and measure bill had been referred, reported certain amendments reducing the fees for sealing.

The amendments were adopted, and on motion of Mr. LEE the bill was ordered engrossed for third reading.

On resuming after joint convention the House adjourned until 8 A. M. to-morrow (Thursday).

Joint Convention.

In pursuance with a resolution passed by them on Monday both Houses met in joint convention at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the election of certain officers.

PILOT COMMISSIONERS.

On motion of Senator HIRSCH the convention proceeded to the election of three Pilot Commissioners, and the following nominations were made:

By Mr. DEAN—T. R. Warren, Astoria.
By Senator VAN CLEAVE—John Hobson, Astoria.
By Senator HIRSCH—Wm. Wadhams, Portland.
By Mr. GALLOWAY—Moses Rogers, Astoria.
By Mr. KELLY of Multnomah—A. P. Ankeny, Portland.
By Mr. FIDLER—A. Vandusen, Astoria, and Jas. Taylor, Astoria.
By Mr. LAUGHLIN—L. H. Hubbard, Astoria.
By Senator DOLPH—C. Leinweber, Astoria.
By Senator SAVAGE—Augustus C. Kinney, Salem.
By Senator WEBSTER—Samuel Adair, Astoria.

It was agreed that the three candidates receiving a majority of all the votes cast should be declared elected.

On the first ballot Mr. Wadhams was the only candidate elected. 86 votes were cast, leaving 44 necessary to a choice. Wadhams received 49 votes, none of the others received as many as 40.

On the second ballot Vandusen received 50 votes and Warren 46 votes, being a majority of all the votes cast.

Messrs. Wadhams, Vandusen and Warren were therefore declared duly elected as Pilot Commissioners.

STATE LIBRARIAN.

On motion of Senator BRISTOW, the Convention next proceeded to the election of State Librarian, and there were nominated H. C. Woodson, A. F. Wagner, H. Sullivan, Wm. H. Holmes, J. M. Miller, V. R. Hyde, Samuel Parker, F. G. Schwatka and J. Quinn Thornton.

There was no election until the fourth ballot, when the Convention went in favor of Wagner with 49 votes. Holmes stood next with 37 votes.

CAPITOL COMMISSIONERS.

Mr. PLYMALE moved that the Convention next proceed to the election of State Capitol Commissioners.

Senator WATSON moved to adjourn.

Senator HIRSCH moved to take a recess until to-morrow at a quarter past 2.

Senator WATSON accepted the amendment.

Senator BRISTOW thereupon moved to adjourn, and the yeas and nays were demanded—ayes, 8; noes, 77.

So Senator Bristow's motion was lost.

Senator HIRSCH withdrew his motion and Senator MYERS moved to take a recess until to-morrow at 7 P. M.

Senator CORNELIUS submitted that it was not within the province of that Convention to adjourn, and moved that the Convention dissolve.

This motion gave rise to a discussion, and a point of order was made that a motion to dissolve was not debatable.

President COCHRAN ruled the point of order well taken.

Mr. BRADSHAW appealed against the decision of the Chair and the appeal was sustained.

The motion to dissolve was then put and voted down.

Mr. BROWN moved to proceed now to the election of three Capitol Commissioners.

Senator DOLPH moved to amend by electing a Register of State Lands at La Grande.

Senator OWENS hoped the Convention would vote down any filibustering proposition and proceed with the election of Capitol Commissioners, and not run the risk of allowing the present Commissioners to hold over and draw per diem while doing nothing.

Senator DOLPH replied that the election of Capitol Commissioners was not one of the objects mentioned in the resolution calling for the Joint Convention, and many of the members were therefore unprepared to vote upon the question. As to the present Commissioners, they were only allowed compensation when necessarily employed in connection with the building. He did not think the best men were to be obtained by rushing the election through.

The motion to amend was voted down.

Mr. DUFUR moved the previous question. Carried.

The following nominations were then made:

By Mr. BROWN—George Tillotson.
By Mr. PLYMALE—Henry Klippel.
By Mr. DUFUR—Stephen Coffin.
By Mr. GALLOWAY—J. F. Miller.
By Mr. STEEN—R. P. Boise.
By Senator MUNKERS—Joseph Holman.
By Mr. MAYS—B. F. Harding.
By Mr. ROE—A. S. Watt.
By Senator VAN CLEAVE—Thomas Stephens, Portland.
By Mr. GILBERT—H. Stapleton.
By Mr. RINEARSON—K. St. John, Portland.
By Mr. DEAN—F. Housworth.
By Mr. JOHNSON—J. M. Scott.
By Mr. LEE—J. W. Green.

The first ballot resulted in the election of Henry Klippel, he receiving 43 votes out of a total of 85.

The names of Coffin, Miller, Harding and St. John were then withdrawn by their nominators.

At the second ballot 84 votes were cast, and three candidates received a majority, namely Boise 55, Stapleton 49, and Tillotson 45. About 20 ballots were changed before the vote was announced.

On motion of Senator BRISTOW, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes were declared elected. The Commissioners are therefore: Henry Klippel, of Jackson, one of the [illegible] Commissioners and a Democrat; R. P. Boise, of Marion, an Independent, and H. Stapleton, of Marion, a Republican.

REGISTER AT LAGRANDE.

On motion of Senator HIRSCH, the Convention proceeded to the election of a Register of State Lands at LaGrande, and there were nominated: James Hendershott, D. W. Lichtenthaler, Chas. McMorris and J. S. Shinn.

To secure an election on first ballot quite a number of votes were changed to Hendershott, who had the lead, before the result was announced. Hendershott received 48 votes out of 83, and was declared elected.

A motion being made to dissolve, the PRESIDENT reminded the Convention that there was another officer to be elected, namely, State Geologist.

Senators WEBSTER and WATSON thereupon drew attention to the fact that there is no provision in the law creating a State Geologist or providing for the election of such an officer, either in legislative convention or by the people.

So the Convention dissolved, on motion of Senator HALEY, having been in session three and a half hours.

THE TERRITORIES.

Near Helena, Montana, one day last week, a negro desperado and a quarrelsome white man shot and stabbed each other to death, both expiring about the same time.

The Salt Lake papers report the murder of a woman at the town of Bountiful. Her name was Elizabeth Williams. The assassin fired the fatal shot through a window, while the lady was about here work.

The Republican Convention of Idaho Territory unanimously endorsed Gov. Bennett as its choice for delegate to Congress, he having announced himself as an independent candidate before the Convention met.

At a recent meeting of the Pueblo and Salt Lake railroad, held at Pueblo, M. D. Thatcher was elected President, and O. H. P. Baxter Vice President. A. A. Baxter and James Rice were elected Directors, vice A. M. Shaffenburg and M. Anker resigned.

A Constable stopped a funeral procession in Colorado Springs, on the ground that the deceased, a Mrs. Jones, had been poisoned. The corpse was given into the custody of the Coroner, and the post mortem showed that the woman had died of dropsy.

Geo. Sanford, driver on the Silver City stage, says, that on Thursday morning, last week, about one o'clock, while Jake Hamline was driving up the Winnemucca stage from Wagon town to Silver, some thief got up behind the stage, cut the boot straps and stole out a passenger's trunk and got away with it!

Dan Smith, an old plainsman, who killed his wife on the Platte some years ago, stabbed and fatally wounded a man named Ross, on Dale creek, four miles from Sherman, a few nights ago. Smith was threatening violence to his wife, and Ross interfered as a peacemaker, when the former drew his pocket-knife and stabbed him.

The Territorial Democratic Convention of Idaho, after balloting eleven days for a candidate for Delegate to Congress, during which something near 500 votes were taken standing "Ensign 14, Foote 14," the Convention finally took a tack, picked up a new man and nominated S. S. Fenn by a vote of 22 to 4 for Ensign and 2 for Foote.

OREGON.

The building at Salem is already erected, and the apparatus for preserving and drying the fruit is being placed in position. It is expected that by the first of November everything will be ready for operation.

The Record says: "It is proposed to change the location of the grand stand upon the Fair Grounds to the west side of the track, so that persons occupying it during the races during Fair week will not have to sit with the sun shining directly in their faces, as was the case during the week just passed."

The Salem Record reports that the Capital Lumbering Company has received an order from the large agricultural implement manufacturing house of Baker & Hamilton, San Francisco, for 50,000 feet of oak and ash lumber. This concern have now contracts for 900,000 feet for the San Francisco market. Small mills in the country near hard wood timber can make sub-contracts at good figures by addressing Capital Lumbering Company in this city.

A GOOD TIME TO DECLARE.

General Grant has been formally put in nomination for a third term by the dominant political party in the State of South Carolina. We entertain no very grave apprehensions of the election of any man to the office of President more than two terms in succession. It never did happen, and we think it never will. It is not, therefore because we are moved by fear of such an event that we refer to it. And we are not in the habit of very frequently volunteering advice to the President of the United States. But we cannot help thinking, and we throw out the suggestion, that this nomination by South Carolina affords the President an excellent occasion to decline allowing his name to be used at all as a candidate for a third term. By so doing he would manifest that regard and reverence for Washington and the great and good men who succeeded him as President which is common to the American people.

General Grant's military fame is among our national treasures; and we do not wish to see it tarnished by the manifestation of any inordinate ambition for mere power and place. His early declination would effectually guard his name against the suspicion of selfish and unworthy motives, and a disposition to disregard the cherished traditions of his country.

What we would like to see on the part of the President is a disavowal of any willingness to be a candidate again, even if a few miserable, self-seeking politicians and office-holders do desire to put him in nomination. A third term means the first step toward monarchy; and the name of any man who stands out as the representative of monarchical ideas in this country is destined to become infamous. General Grant cannot decline too soon.—N. Y. Ledger.

SCHLESWIG-HOLSTEIN.

[Berlin Correspondence of the New York World.]

There seems to be little doubt that Prince Bismarck has lately received some very disagreeable checks, and that he is in anything but a good humor. The whole truth about the Danish affair has not yet come to light, but the following facts have been disclosed: Bismarck proposed to the King of Denmark that he should join the German confederacy, become a vassal of the Emperor, and allow his fleet and army to be incorporated with those of the empire. This would be a very fine thing for Germany—indeed, the finest of fine things. The propositions made to King Christian were very tempting—especially to a poor monarch, but he declined them, and then Prince Bismarck made some threats, the substance of which was that if Germany could not get what she wanted by fair means she would take it by force some of these fine days. Upon this, King Christian caused the Emperor of Russia to be informed of all that had passed. His anger was great—this was by no means the entertainment to which he had been invited when he went to Berlin and swore eternal friendship to his imperial cousin. With Denmark a German province, Germany would hold the key of the Baltic. It was time to check the arrogant designs of the German chancellor, and the czar not only told King Christian that he would stand by him in protecting the independence of Denmark, but he also set to work to check Bismarck in another way, and sent a letter to Don Carlos, encouraging him in his campaign for the throne of Spain, and almost promising him that if Germany interfered any more in Spanish affairs, Russia would interfere also, but in Don Carlos' interest. Thus the plot thickens on every side. If the coming war should break out now, we should have Russia, France, and Austria as allies against Germany and Italy. A war thus commenced would draw every State in Europe into the quarrel; and I do not see how even England itself could keep out of it.

The irritation that Bismarck feels at the refusal of the King of Denmark to consent to his proposals may account for the persecution which he is now inflicting upon the Danish inhabitants of northern Schleswig. On the other hand it may be possible that those Danes have been stirred up to do things which the Germans are persecuting them for by inspirations from Copenhagen and St. Petersburg—that is, it may be that Russia is encouraging Denmark to pick a quarrel with Germany. The former is perhaps the most correct opinion. These Danish Schleswigens are only asking—and the Danish government backs them up in asking—that the fifth article of the treaty of Prague, signed in August, 1866, may be carried out. There are 200,000 Danes in northern Schleswig. When Schleswig was wrested from Denmark, these people were promised that they should be allowed to vote as to their future destiny, and that their decision should be obeyed. Here is the fifth article of the treaty:

His Majesty the Emperor of Austria transfers to his Majesty the King of Prussia all the rights he acquired under the peace of Vienna on the 30th of October, 1864, to the Duchies of Holstein and Schleswig, with the understanding that the people of the northern district of Schleswig, if by free vote they express a wish to be united to Denmark, shall be ceded to Denmark accordingly.

Eight years have [illegible] since this promise was given, and the Danes have not ceased to ask for its fulfillment. It has never been fulfilled, and it is not likely to be.

A WORD TO MINERS.

The yield of gold and silver on the Pacific slope during the past 25 years amounts to $1,583,844,834. Of this sum California produced $1,004,919,098; Nevada, $221,403,412; Utah, $16,527,537; Montana, $119,808,147; Idaho, $57,249,197; Colorado, $80,000,000; and Oregon and Washington Territory together, $25,504,250. Besides this Arizona and New Mexico have commenced a yield which will greatly increase with settlement and safe and cheap communication with that country. British Columbia has furnished $9,000,000. This is the result of but a quarter of a century, and the amount [illegible] increases every year. The effects of such an accumulation to the wealth of the world cannot be comprehended. It has reduced the value of gold one-half. That is, it has so increased the value of everything else that it takes two dollars now to buy what one dollar purchased 25 years ago. It is a complaisant thought in the minds of many Eastern people that they have, on the whole, done better than those who came West 20 years ago. They will tell you how their lands and stocks have doubled and quadrupled in value; but not many of them realize that because in the far West, in deep ravines, in tunnels, drifts and shafts, strong men were wearing out their lives, they unconsciously have been gaining wealth, that every dollar they have accumulated is indeed a certificate, surely affirming that those who left them, and sought this Coast, in the years gone by, did not come in vain.

No army ever brought home such conquests of treasures; no host ever before so changed the face of things. It is almost as though nature had passed through another of [illegible] periods which geologists mark, and brought its corresponding change upon the face of the earth. Because of the miners' work the great city by the Golden Gate has burst upon the world. Half the magnificence of the cities of the Eastern States; half the luxuries enjoyed by the people of the East are due to the same cause. Our miners' toil has built new palaces in Europe, and made more [illegible] the mosques and Harems of Egypt and of Asia. It was because of their labor, that [illegible] the great rebellion came, the Government's security for the ultimate redemption of her debts was manifest. It was because of [illegible] that, when M. Thiers called on the [illegible] of France for five milliards, from Field Marshal to stable-boy, from Prince to chambermaid, all [illegible] able to unearth their purses of hoarded silver and of gold, and to pour them into their country's coffers, while the world, astonished, looked on. While this has been done for the world at large, a wilderness has been subdued, flourishing states created, and an empire in extent opened to settlement.

This is no fancy picture. Indeed it is but a meager outline of what those brave men have done. Books might be filled with records of what they have suffered and endured. Strange tales could be written of the struggles of great hearts, toiling through the years, while youth fled, and hopes which it was but just and natural to nurture, one by one sickened and died; and of the thousands who, their natures unappreciated, their depth and worth concealed by a rough exterior and brusque address; of those for whom no record is kept, as year by year they grow weary, and folding their rough robes around them pass, uncomplainingly, away. Surely these men should not be forgotten; surely the people of the whole country should think of them kindly; and the Government ought to listen with patient ear to their petitions, especially when we consider it is not often their wont to ask for anything except a fair field within which to work, and six feet of barren soil in which to sleep when his long day's work is done.

George Washington Bowen, of Providence, who claimed to be the illegitimate son of Madame Jumel, and heir to her valuable estate, has not only been defeated in litigation, but is likely to lose the comfortable property which he had accumulated by a long life of industry. E. R. Hoar, of Massachusetts, has sued Bowen in the United States Circuit Court of Rhode Island, for counsel fees, and the case is on trial before Judge Knowles. When Bowen began the Jumel suit he owned real estate worth probably $30,000, which has been slowly dwindling down until he is now comparatively poor.

The aggregate receipts from all sources at the recent State Fair amounted to about $14,000.

OUR RIVER'S NAME.

WALLAMET, WALLAMETTE OR WILLAMETTE.

The venerable Archbishop of Oregon, Very Reverend F. N. Blanchet, upon the question of how the name of our river is spelled, has written the following communication to Governor Grover which we have been requested to publish. Owing to the discussion going on in the press and elsewhere, it will be read with interest coming from the source it does.

PORTLAND, Oct. 7, 1874.

To His Excellency L. F. Grover, Governor of Oregon—SIR: Allow me to call your attention to a question of some importance, in reference to the name of our river and its beautiful valley, on account of its being spelled and written in three different manners. Formerly and and for many years it was written and called "Wallamette." Others pretend that it should be simply written "Wallamet." In later years, its first syllable "Wall" was changed into "Will." To know which of these three is the true and genuine name of our river, is, by no means, a useless and superfluous question. No one should be indifferent to its being examined and settled. The adjustment of the question has been neglected rather too long; it should not be delayed any longer; for, in a few years more, the old pioneers, having disappeared, all chance of settling it shall be, then, lost for ever. In fault of any others, I offer to give my experience, and say what I know concerning it, in the hope that justice may be done to the prior right.

The knowledge, then, I have in the [illegible] forces me to declare that "Willamette," as it is now written, was formerly a name unheard and unknown, at Fort Vancouver, where the early Catholic missionaries, Father Demers and myself, arrived Nov. 24, 1838; and that "Wallamette" is the only name which they heard spoken of, and learned, on their arrival, from the H. B. Co's officers, the employees, and from the Indians themselves, which name they received and adopted, making use of it henceforth in their correspondence at home and abroad, until about 1850, when the name of "Willamette" did generally prevail. For the truth of this fact, I refer to the testimony of the Protestant ministers; who entered Oregon in 1836, and some subsequent years, and adopted also, in their correspondence, the same orthography of the name "Wallamette." And other evidence of previous and higher time, may be found to the same effect, in the following fact: The two expeditions of Mr. Astor, to Oregon, in 1810, one by sea, and the other by land, contained no few French Canadians. In 1853 some of them, Messrs. Laframboise, Lucier, Labonte, Gervais, were still living. Having learned in early time, from the Indians, the name of our river, they never called it in my presence but by the name of "Wallamette." As to the final syllable "mette" and "met," they are both French; the first of which some one of the early officers or Chief Factors of the H. B. Co., speaking French, would prefer before the other one. As to "Wall," "Walla Walla," "Wallamet," these expressions seem to have been hallowed among the Indians of this country as [illegible] some g[illegible] and big names, as they are to be found and repeated elsewhere, at a great distance in Eastern Oregon. Some one object to the syllable "Wall," because it sounds too much like the Indian accent, or savors too much of it; but if this should be an obj[illegible] we must also do away with "Wasco," "Walla Walla," "Wallula," because they savor as much; and also give up the [illegible] and numerous French name to be found all over the country.

Other proofs are to be found in the books of the H. B. Co., whose officers [illegible] the appellative "Walla[illegible]"

In their [illegible] and [illegible] the missionaries and others; thus, the bills of supply to our mission, from 1839 up to 1847, had always the heading: "Catholic Mission in 'Wallamette,'" "Catholic Mission at the Falls." My letters and those of the Catholic missionaries, from 1839 to 1847, were always dated from "St. Paul, 'Wallamette.'" The Protestant missionaries had no other practice; thus Rev. Gustavus Hines, one of the expedition by sea of 1840, in his history of Oregon, (edited in New York, 1859,) on all occasions calls our river with its original and peculiar name of "Wallamette." Thus, also, Dr. Elijah White, one of the expedition, by land, of 1836, when writing as Sub-Agent of Indian Affairs, to the Secretary of War, in 1843, always dated his letters from "Wallamette" valley.

Next and last comes the strong, incontestable and undeniable testimony of the people in their earliest attempts to form a Provisional Government, and of the representatives assembled to frame laws. That testimony is found in the precious manuscriptal records, giving the names of the places where they met. In the meeting held in Champoeg, February 17th and 18th, 1841, those present are thus called: "The inhabitants of Wallamette valley." In the meeting held in the same place, March 4th, 1873, they are called "the inhabitants of the Wallamette settlement." Oregon City, the place where the Legislative Assembly used to meet, is there called in the same record, sometimes "Wallamette," and other times "Wallamette Falls." Let those precious records be produced, and they will plainly prove the bulk of the fact here advanced.

Now as to the second manner of writing the name of our river, viz: "Wallamet," unable to say when and where it originated and began to be used, I can only refer to the History of Oregon (edited 1870), by Mr. W. H. Gray, who was one of the expedition, by land, of 1836, and that of the River of the West, (edited 1871), compiled by Mr. Joseph L. Meek, who entered Oregon in 1843, because they both shorten the name of our river by cutting off the last syllable "te," while they preserve the orthography of the first one, "Wall." In the first instance the omission of "te" is a change, and a reformation warranted by no tradition nor authority whatsoever. In the second instance, they show themselves perfectly true to the long tradition they had witnessed and practiced themselves for many years. Such as bear testimony from such early pioneers, is an additional and irrefutable proof in favor of the old and genuine name of our river.

I will now pass to the third manner of spelling and writing the name of our river with "Will" instead of "Wall," viz: "Willamette." This change or mutilation originated among the numerous emigrants of 1842, and subsequent periods, who, mistaking "Will" for "Wall," began to use the English word and spread the change among their neighbors. The Oregon Spectator and Oregon Argus, ignoring the tradition of the old name innocently propagated it. Hence its gradual and general use, superceding the original and time-honored name. Had some of the early comers and old pioneers remonstrated and protested against the innovation, it might have been stopped; but none did anything. Hence the success of the new name, and so much so that, this becoming a conviction among the learned new comers the honorable [illegible] men who were employed by the Government, in 1853, to publish our manuscriptal records finding therein, everywhere, the name "Wallamette," they considered it as a name altogether obsolete; they, therefore replaced it by the anglo Indian name of "Willamette" the proof of such a change may be seen in the Oregon archives pp. 5, 6, 12, 14, 16, 26, 38, 54, 59, 90, 154, which I cannot help regretting as often as I meet it.

Now that I have demonstrated that "Wallamette" has the prior right, and is the genuine name of our river, and that "Wallamet" and "Willamette" lack in their pretensions, I would ask: Is there still any chance for restoring to our river and its valley, this old and time honored name? If there be, pl[illegible] make use of the present to obtain it.

I am most respectfully, Excellency,
Your obedient servant,
F. N. BLANCHET,
Archbishop of Oregon.

Gen. Devin is to take temporary c[illegible] of the military district of New Mexico in Gen. Gregg's absence.

[illegible]—NO. 221.

PORTLAND, OREGON: THURSDAY OCTOBER 22, 1874.

PRICE—TEN CENTS.

OREGON LEGISLATURE.

EIGHTH BIENNIAL SESSION.

Senate—Morning Session.

SALEM, October 21, 1874.

On motion of Mr. WATSON the rules were suspended and reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

Mr. MYERS, from the select committee to which was referred H. B. 29, the bill proving for times of holding County and Circuit Courts, [illegible] the same back with amendments and reco[illegible] its passage. The amendments were adopted.

Mr. BRALY, from the Joint Committee on Railroads, to whom was referred the Corvallis and Yaquina Railroad bill, reported the same back with amendments, which strikes out the words "swamp and overflowed lands" and inserts "tide and marsh lands," all of which, within the county of Benton, are granted in aid of the construction of the road, and recommended the adoption of the amendments and the passage of the bill.

On motion of Mr LEE the rules were suspended and the bill was read third time and passed. Ayes, 19; noes, 4. Those voting no were Crystal, Myers, Owens, Tolin.

Absent—Cornelius, Dolph, Hanna, Richardson, VanCleave, Wisdom.

On motion of Mr. MYERS the rules were suspended and H. B. 29 was read third time and passed.

Mr. HALEY, from the Committee on Claims, to which was referred S. J. R. 22, introduced by Mr. OWENS authorizing the Secretary of State to cancel the judgment against S. E. May and [illegible], reported that in consequence of the limited time allowed for examination of the matter, the Committee were not entirely [illegible] of the resolution, but were inclined to the opinion that the judgment should be canceled.

Messrs. CORNELIUS and WATSON advocated the passage of the resolution, and Messrs. COCHRAN (Townsend having been called to the Chair), and MYERS spoke against the resolution.

The resolution was adopted.

Absent—Offield, Richardson and Wisdom—3.

On motion of Mr. [illegible], the rules were suspended, and H. B. 47, in reference to the Clerk of the Supreme Court, was taken up and read. Under suspension of the rules, the bill was read second time. The bill was amended in some unimportant particulars, after which the rules were further suspended, and the bill was read third time and passed—only one Senator voting no.

The bill as amended and passed, repeals the act giving the Clerk a salary; allows the Court to fix the amount of his per diem for attendance on the Court, and leaves the fees as under the present law. It also provides that the Clerk shall be appointed by the Court to hold his office during their pleasure, and that the Clerk shall not be permitted to practice as an attorney in that Court, while holding the office.

Adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

Mr. ENGLE, by unanimous consent, withdrew from the Senate the communication of James, [illegible] & Co., proposing to lease rooms to the State for the purpose of [illegible]ting the same to the other House.

On motion of Mr. WEBSTER the rules were suspended and S. B. 93, amending the act providing for the sale of tide and overflowed lands on the sea shore and coast was taken up, read third time and [illegible].

A communication from the House informed the Senate that the House was ready to receive them pursuant to S. J. R. 22, for the purpose of electing such [illegible] as by law required to be elected by such Convention.

On motion the Senate took a recess until such time as it may be called together by the Chair, for the purpose allowing the Sergeant-at-Arms to remove the chairs to the hall of the House.

Shortly [illegible] the mallet of the President called the Senators to order when the Sergeant-at-Arms conducted them in a body to the hall of the House.

The Senate resumed at 6 o'clock.

The PRESIDENT arose and stated to the Senate that he had received dispatches from home during the afternoon informing him that one of his children had been very dangerously scalded and was in a critical condition, which would preclude him from meeting with the Senate again. The Senate will have to make some arrangements to fill the position I occupy, as I shall be on my way to my home before you will [illegible]ble again. Before leaving you, unexpectedly as it is, and under these sad circumstances, I will say to you that our [illegible] relations, at least so far as my feelings are concerned, have been of the most agreeable character, and I feel proud that I have been associated with gentlemen for whom I have so high a regard and so much respect. This is perhaps the last time that we will all meet together, and I wish to say that every Senator will take with him my very best wishes. I shall consider myself under lasting obligations for the forbearance that has been shown, and the assistance that has been rendered me in the discharge of my duties, and I cannot leave you without saying that I am proud that I have had the honor to preside over a Senate composed of gentlemen of such worth and honor.

Mr. WATSON offered the following [illegible], which was adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate are hereby tendered to the President for the able, efficient and impartial manner in which he has discharged the duties of presiding officer.

On motion of Mr. DOLPH, indefinite leave of absence was granted to Mr. Cochran.

Adjourned.

House—Morning Session.

The House met at 8 o'clock A. M.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

The Committee on Elections reported back H. B. 88, for the election of Prosecuting Attorney.

Mr. CRANSTON moved to indefinitely postpone.

Mr. MAYS—This bill is important, and provides that each county, with the exception of the smaller ones, shall elect a Prosecuting Attorney. This bill will enable each county to have a resident Prosecuting Attorney at its county seat, while under the [illegible] [illegible] serves five or six [illegible] and [illegible] the attorney finds an accumulation of business, without any information as to its merits. Every material interest of the county requires that there should be a resident Prosecuting Attorney, and he hoped the bill would pass.

Mr. BRADSHAW thought this was a meritorious bill, and should pass. He was satisfied no bill presented during this session was of more importance than this. He thought some amendments were needed. The salary provided is only $100 per annum. This is no compensation at all. It is true it is a slight saving to the [illegible], but he was not in favor of paying less than the services were worth. He hoped the bill would be amended so that the counties will pay this officer a salary. His duties will be better performed than ever before, and it would be unwise to reduce the compensation.

On motion of Mr. MAYS, the bill was referred to a special committee of three for amendment.

The SPEAKER appointed as such committee: Messrs Mays, Bradshaw and McClung.

A majority of the Joint Committee on Retrenchment and Reform reported back H. B. 88, in relation to the election of Superintendent of Penitentiary by the L[illegible], with a recommendation that it do pass.

Messrs. GALLOWAY and TOWNSEND presented a minority report recommending that the bill do not pass.

Mr. GALLOWAY also asked leave to present the report of the Special Committee on H. B. 104, which provides for the election of a Superintendent by the people at the election in 1876, so that the House might have both bills before them at the same time. The report recommended the adoption of amendments to make the salary $1,600, and to strike out the words repealing section 15 of the existing law under which the Superintendent draws his present salary. The amendments were adopted in their order.

Mr. STEEN thought the House did not know what they were doing when they passed the second amendment. If this bill should pass the Superintendent would draw salary under both sections and would get $3,600 per annum. He was of opinion the House did not intend that, and he moved to reconsider. The motion prevailed and the amendment was lost.

A motion by Mr. BROWN to lay the bill on the table was lost, and on motion of Mr. FIDLER it was considered engrossed and made the special order for 11 o'clock this forenoon.

The Committee on Ways and Means reported back H. B. 30, to define the duties and fix the pay of the agent of the Board of School Land Commissioners, with amendments striking out the clause providing for giving the agent fees; adding a section providing that the agent should receive no other pay whatever than as provided in the bill, and making the act take effect on its approval by the Governor.

On motion of Mr. STANNARD the amendments were adopted and the bill was ordered engrossed and read third time to-morrow.

Mr. STEARNS, from the Committee on Commerce, reported back H. B 77, to provide a standard of weights and measures, without recommendation. The bill was referred to a special committee consisting of Cranston, Lee and Stearns.

Mr. LAUGHLIN, from the Committee on Roads and Highways, reported back H. B 105, to provide for the construction of a wagon road from the mouth of the Nehalem river to Clatsop Plains, with a recommendation that it do not pass. On motion of Mr. BROWN, ordered to third reading to-morrow.

The same committee on H. B. 100, in relation to the manner of laying out public roads in certain cases, reported that the Senate had already passed a bill of similar character, and therefore recommended that this bill do not pass. The bill was laid on the table.

The same committee reported in reference to the petition of citizens of Coos county, asking an appropriation of $20,000 for the construction of a wagon road from the north fork of Coos river to Clayton's ferry on the Umpqua river, that the proposed measure was meritorious, because the location is isolated and they are cut off from communication with the outside by almost insuperable obstacles; but on account of the depleted condition of the Treasury, at the present time they recommend that the petition be not granted. The petition was laid on the table.

Mr. LEDGERWOOD, from the Committee on Counties, reported back H. B. 70, to tax dogs, with recommendation that it do not pass. Ordered to a third reading to-morrow.

Mr. JACKSON, from the Committee on Claims reported back H. B. 46, for the relief of Douglas county, without amendment.

A motion by Mr. RIDDLE, to suspend the rules and put the bill on its final passage was lost, and the bill was ordered to a third reading to-morrow.

The majority of the same committee reported back H. B. 105, for the relief of Settlemeir and Hale, with recommendation that it pass. The bill was ordered to a third reading to-morrow.

The Judiciary Committee reported back H. B. 111, in relation to the sale of land by executors and administrators, recommending that it pass.

On motion of Mr DULLY, the rules were suspended and the bill put on its final passage and passed by a vote of 50 to 2—Mr. Riddle and Mr. Speaker voting no.

The Judiciary Committee reported back H. B. 82, to amend sec. 4 of chap 36 of miscellaneous laws, in regard to insane persons, recommending the passage of accompanying substitute, which was read, and on motion laid on the table.

The same committee also reported back H. B 92, in relation to supervisors of roads, with an amendment striking out the words "providing that Supervisors shall hold office until the following term of the County Court."

On motion of Mr. BLAKE the rules were suspended and the bill put on its final passage and passed without dissent. The title of the bill was changed so as to refer to chapter 50 of title of one of general laws.

SENATE BUSINESS.

A message informed the House that the Senate had pa[illegible] H. B. 99 (the Winnemucca bill), also S. B 106, re-districting the State for Senatorial and Representative purposes. The bill was read, and on motion of Mr. FIDLER the rules were suspended and the bill read a second time by title.

On motion of Mr. RINEARSON the bill was referred to a special committee of three, with instructions to report at any time. The Speaker appointed as such committee Messrs. Rinearson, Chambers and Plymale.

The SPEAKER stated that he was in error in deciding that the motion to suspend the rules and put H. B. 46 (for the relief of Douglas County), on its passage was lost. He had been under the impression that such a motion required a majority of all the members. Further examination showed that a majority of all the members present could do so. The rules were therefore suspended and the bill put on its passage and passed 31 to 21.

S. B. 52—To contract with certain railroad companies for the transportation of State troops and munitions of war, and convicts to the penitentiary, was read first time.

THE STATE CAPITOL BILL.

Mr. GALLOWAY called up H. B. 48, which was made the special order for 10 o'clock this morning. The question being "Shall the bill pass?" resulted as follows:

Yeas—Bradshaw, Chandler, Cornell, Cranston, Durst, Doak, Dully, Fidler, Galloway, Gilbert, Hays, Jackson, Johnson, Kelly of Multnomah, Laughlin, L[illegible]wood, Matlock, Mathieu, McClung, [illegible], Plymale, Reed of Clackamas, Reed of Marion, [illegible], Roe, Scott, Shedd, Shelton, Simpson, [illegible] Van Riper, Wilson, Wright of Jackson [illegible] Brown, Bruce, Butler, Chambers, [illegible] Dufur, Florence, Gearin, Kelly of [illegible], Lee, Mays, Partlow, Riddle, Ross, [illegible] Stump, Wasson, Wright of Union and Mr. Speaker—22.

So the bill passed.

S. B. 71—To amend the Act providing for a code of civil procedure, under suspension of the rules was read first and second time by title.

On motion of Mr. GALLOWAY the bill was referred to a special committee of three, with instructions to report at any time.

The CHAIR appointed as such committee Messrs. Galloway, Gearin and Chambers.

ELECTION OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PENITENTIARY.

Mr. GALLOWAY called up H. B. 104, to provide for the election of Superintendent.

Mr. MAYS desired to offer an amendment in the shape of a proviso, allowing this Legislature to elect a Superintendent to hold until the election in 1876. He believed this Legislature wished to enact such a bill as this, and also that they wanted to elect a Superintendent to hold until such time as the people could vote upon the subject. But he would be compelled to vote against the bill un[illegible] the proviso was incorporated in it.

Mr. GALLOWAY objected to the amendment and said his reason for doing so was that he was opposed to the Legislature going into elections be[illegible] they always have more business than they can do. He further intimated his belief that even if such a provision should pass both Houses it would not become a law. He did not pretend to speak for the Governor nor for anybody. He simply gave his views.

Mr. CHAMBERS called attention to the fact that there was no enacting clause in the bill. It had gone too far to be amended, except by unanimous consent, and he would object.

Mr. RIDDLE believed this was a filibustering bill anyhow, and had been introduced solely for the purpose of defeating another bill.

On motion of Mr. FIDLER, it was referred to a special committee of three for amendment.

S. B. 113—to provide for the construction of the Wallamet Valley and Coast Railroad, was read first and second times, under suspension of the rules, and referred to a special committee with instructions to report at any time. The CHAIR appointed Messrs. Chambers, Brown and Kelly as such committee.

The special committee on H. B. 104 having reported back said bill with amendments, it came up on its final passage, the vote being as follows:

Nays—Blake, Crawford, Mays, McGugin, Noyes—5.

Absent—Jewett, Mathieu, Stott—3.

So the bill passed.

Mr. RIDDLE—I move to amend the title of the bill so as to read "A bill to continue Bill Watkinds in office for the ensuing two years." [Laughter.]

The SPEAKER—The motion is out of order.

On motion of Mr. FIDLER, the House adjourned.

Afternoon Session.

The House resumed at 1.30 P. M., on the order of the day for the consideration of H. B. 88 (Mr. Mays), providing for the election of a Superintendent of the Penitentiary by the present Legislature. The bill was referred to a special committee to make certain amendments.

The committee to whom the weights and measure bill had been referred, reported certain amendments reducing the fees for sealing.

The amendments were adopted, and on motion of Mr. LEE the bill was ordered engrossed for third reading.

On resuming after joint convention the House adjourned until 8 A. M. to-morrow (Thursday).

Joint Convention.

In pursuance with a resolution passed by them on Monday both Houses met in joint convention at 2 o'clock this afternoon for the election of certain officers.

PILOT COMMISSIONERS.

On motion of Senator HIRSCH the convention proceeded to the election of three Pilot Commissioners, and the following nominations were made:

By Mr. DEAN—T. R. Warren, Astoria.
By Senator VAN CLEAVE—John Hobson, Astoria.
By Senator HIRSCH—Wm. Wadhams, Portland.
By Mr. GALLOWAY—Moses Rogers, Astoria.
By Mr. KELLY of Multnomah—A. P. Ankeny, Portland.
By Mr. FIDLER—A. Vandusen, Astoria, and Jas. Taylor, Astoria.
By Mr LAUGHLIN—L. H. Hubbard, Astoria.
By Senator DOLPH—C. Leinweber, Astoria.
By Senator SAVAGE—Augustus C. Kinney, Salem.
By Senator WEBSTER—Samuel Adair, Astoria.

It was agreed that the three candidates receiving a majority of all the votes cast should be declared elected.

On the first ballot Mr. Wadhams was the only candidate elected; 86 votes were cast, leaving 44 necessary to a choice. Wadhams received 49 votes; none of the others received as many as 40.

On the second ballot Vandusen received 50 votes and Warren 46 votes, being a majority of all the votes cast.

Messrs. Wadhams, Vandusen and Warren were therefore declared duly elected as Pilot Commissioners.

STATE LIBRARIAN.

On motion of Senator BRISTOW, the Convention next proceeded to the election of State Librarian, and there were nominated H. C. Woodson, A. F Wagner, H. Sullivan, Wm. H. Holmes, J. M. Miller, V. R. Hyde, Samuel Parker, F. G. Schwatka and J. Quinn Thornton.

There was no election until the fourth ballot, when the Convention went in favor of Wagner with 49 votes. Holmes stood next with 37 votes.

CAPITOL COMMISSIONERS.

Mr. PLYMALE moved that the Convention next proceed to the election of State Capitol Commissioners.

Senator WATSON moved to adjourn.

Senator HIRSCH moved to take a recess until to-morrow at a quarter past 2.

Senator WATSON accepted the amendment.

Senator BRISTOW thereupon moved to adjourn, and the yeas and nays were demanded—ayes, 8; noes, 77.

So Senator Bristow's motion was lost.

Senator HIRSCH withdrew his motion and Senator MYERS moved to take a recess until to-morrow at 7 P. M.

Senator CORNELIUS submitted that it was not within the province of that Convention to adjourn, and moved that the Convention dissolve.

This motion gave rise to a discussion, and a point of order was made that a motion to dissolve was not debatable

Mr. BRADSHAW appealed against the decision of the Chair and the appeal was sustained.

The motion to dissolve was then put and voted down.

Mr. BROWN moved to proceed now to the election of three Capitol Commissioners.

Senator DOLPH moved to amend by electing a Register of State lands at La Grande.

Senator OWENS hoped the Convention would vote down any filibustering proposition and proceed with the election of Capitol Commissioners, and not run the risk of allowing the present Commissioners to hold over and draw per diem while doing nothing.

Senator DOLPH replied that the election of Capitol Commissioners was not one of the objects mentioned in the resolution calling for the Joint Convention, and many of the members were therefore unprepared to vote upon the question. As to the present Commissioners, they were only allowed compensation when necessarily employed in connection with the building. He did not think the best men were to be obtained by rushing the election through.

The motion to amend was voted down.

Mr. DUFUR moved the previous question. Carried.

The following nominations were then made:

By Mr. BROWN—George Tillotson.
By Mr. PLYMALE—Henry Klippel.
By Mr. DUFUR—Stephen Coffin.
By Mr. GALLOWAY—J. F. Miller.
By Mr. STEEN—R. P. Boise.
By Senator MUNKERS—Joseph Holman.
By Mr. MAYS—B. F. Harding.
By Mr. ROE—A. S. Watt.
By Senator VAN CLEAVE—Thomas Stephens, Portland.
By Mr. GILBERT—H. Stapleton.
By Mr. RINEARSON—E. St. John, Portland.
By Mr. DEAN—F. Houseworth.
By Mr. JOHNSON—J. M. Scott.
By Mr. LEE—J. W. Green.

The first ballot resulted in the election of Henry Klippel, he receiving 43 votes out of a total of 85.

The names of Coffin, Miller, Harding and St John were then withdrawn by their nominators.

At the second ballot 86 votes were cast, and three candidates received a majority, namely: Boise 55, Stapleton 49, and Tillotson 45. About 20 ballots were changed before the vote was announced.

On motion of Senator BRISTOW, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes were declared elected. The Commissioners are therefore: Henry Klippel, of Jackson, one of the p[illegible] Commissioners and a Democrat; R. P. Boise, of Marion, an Independent, and H. Stapleton, of Marion, a Republican.

REGISTER AT LAGRANDE.

On motion of Senator HIRSCH, the Convention proceeded to the election of a Register of State Lands at LaGrande, and there were nominated: James Hendershott, D. W. Lichtenthaler, Chas. McMorris and J. S. Shinn.

To secure an election on first ballot quite a number of votes were changed to Hendershott, who had the lead, before the result was announced. Hendershott received 48 votes out of 83, and was declared elected.

A motion being made to dissolve, the PRESIDENT reminded the Convention that there was another officer to be elected, namely, State Geologist.

Senators WEBSTER and WATSON thereupon drew attention to the fact that there is no provision in the law creating a State Geologist, or providing for the election of such an officer, either in legislative convention or by the people.

So the Convention dissolved, on motion of Senator HALEY, having been in session three and a half hours.

THE TERRITORIES.

Near Helena, Montana, one day last week, a negro desperado and a quarrelsome white man shot and stabbed each other to death, both expiring about the same time.

The Salt Lake papers report the murder of a woman at the town of Bountiful. Her name was Elizabeth Williams. The assassin fired the fatal shot through a window, while the lady was about here work.

The Republican Convention of Idaho Territory unanimously endorsed Gov. Bennett as its choice for delegate to Congress, he having announced himself as an independent candidate before the Convention met.

At a recent meeting of the Pueblo and Salt Lake railroad, held at Pueblo, M. D. Thatcher was elected President, and O. H. P. Baxter Vice President. A. A. Baxter and James Rice were elected Directors, vice A. M. Shaffenburg and M. Anker resigned.

A Constable stopped a funeral procession in Colorado Springs, on the ground that the deceased, a Mrs. Jones, had been poisoned. The corpse was given into the custody of the Coroner, and the post mortem showed that the woman had died of dropsy.

Geo. Sanford, driver on the Silver City stage, says, that on Thursday morning, last week, about one o'clock, while Jake Hamline was driving up the Winnemucca stage from Wagon town to Silver, some thief got up behind the stage, cut the boot straps and stole out a passenger's trunk and got away with it!

Dan Smith, an old plainsman, who killed his wife on the Platte some years ago, stabbed and fatally wounded a man named Ross, on Dale creek, four miles from Sherman, a few nights ago. Smith was threatening violence to his wife, and Ross interfered as a peacemaker, when the former drew his pocket-knife and stabbed him.

The Territorial Democratic Convention of Idaho, after balloting eleven days for a candidate for Delegate to Congress, during which something near 500 votes were taken standing "Ensign 14, Foote 14," the Convention finally took a tack, picked up a new man and nominated S. S. Fenn by a vote of 22 to 4 for Ensign and 2 for Foote.

OREGON.

The building at Salem is already erected, and the apparatus for preserving and drying the fruit is being placed in position. It is expected that by the first of November everything will be ready for operation.

The Record says: "It is proposed to change the location of the grand stand upon the Fair Grounds to the west side of the track, so that persons occupying it during the races during Fair week will not have to sit with the sun shining directly in their faces, as was the case during the week just passed."

The Salem Record reports that the Capital Lumbering Company has received an order from the large agricultural implement manufacturing house of Baker & Hamilton, San Francisco for 50,000 feet of oak and ash lumber. This concern have now contracts for 900,000 feet for the San Francisco market. Small mills in the country near hard wood timber can make sub-contracts at good figures by addressing Capital Lumbering Company in this city.

A GOOD TIME TO DECLARE.

General Grant has been formally put in nomination for a third term by the dominant political party in the State of South Carolina. We entertain no very grave apprehensions of the election of any man to the office of President more than two terms in succession. It never did happen, and we think it never will. It is not, therefore, because we are moved by fear of such an event that we refer to it. And we are not in the habit of very frequently volunteering advice to the President of the United States. But we cannot help thinking, and we throw out the suggestion, that this nomination by South Carolina affords the President an excellent occasion to decline allowing his name to be used at all as a candidate for a third term. By so doing he would manifest that regard and reverence for Washington and the great and good men who succeeded him as President which is common to the American people.

General Grant's military fame is among our national treasures, and we do not wish to see it tarnished by the manifestation of any inordinate ambition for mere power and place. His early declination would effectually guard his name against the suspicion of selfish and unworthy motives, and a disposition to disregard the cherished traditions of his country.

What we would like to see on the part of the President is a disavowal of any willingness to be a candidate again, even if a few miserable, self-seeking politicians and office-holders do desire to put him in nomination. A third term means the first step toward monarchy; and the name of any man who stands out as the representative of monarchical ideas in this country is destined to become infamous. General Grant cannot decline too soon.—N. Y. Ledger.

SCHLESWIG-HOLSTEIN.

[Berlin Correspondence of the New York World.]

There seems to be little doubt that Prince Bismarck has lately received some very disagreeable checks, and that he is in anything but a good humor. The whole truth about the Danish affair has not yet come to light, but the following facts have been disclosed: Bismarck proposed to the King of Denmark that he should join the German confederacy, become a vassal of the Emperor, and allow his fleet and army to be incorporated with those of the empire. This would be a very fine thing for Germany—indeed, the finest of fine things. The propositions made to King Christian were very tempting—especially to a poor monarch, but he declined them, and then Prince Bismarck made some threats, the substance of which was that if Germany could not get what she wanted by fair means she would take it by force some of these fine days. Upon this, King Christian caused the Emperor of Russia to be informed of all that had passed. His anger was great—this was by no means the entertainment to which he had been invited when he went to Berlin and swore eternal friendship to his imperial cousin. With Denmark a German province, Germany would hold the key of the Baltic. It was time to check the arrogant designs of the German chancellor, and the czar not only told King Christian that he would stand by him in protecting the independence of Denmark, but he also set to work to check Bismarck in another way, and sent a letter to Don Carlos, encouraging him in his campaign for the throne of Spain, and almost promising him that if Germany interfered any more in Spanish affairs, Russia would interfere also, but in Don Carlos' interest. Thus the plot thickens on every side. If the coming war should break out now, we should have Russia, France, and Austria as allies against Germany and Italy. A war thus commenced would draw every State in Europe into the quarrel; and I do not see how even England itself could keep out of it.

The irritation that Bismarck feels at the refusal of the King of Denmark to consent to his proposals may account for the persecution which he is now inflicting upon the Danish inhabitants of northern Schleswig. On the other hand it may be possible that those Danes have been stirred up to do things which the Germans are persecuting them for by inspirations from Copenhagen and St. Petersburg—that is, it may be that Russia is encouraging Denmark to pick a quarrel with Germany. The former is perhaps the most correct opinion. These Danish Schleswigens are only asking—and the Danish government backs them up in asking—that the fifth article of the treaty of Prague, signed in August, 1866, may be carried out. There are 200,000 Danes in northern Schleswig. When Schleswig was wrested from Denmark, these people were promised that they should be allowed to vote as to their future destiny, and that their decision should be obeyed. Here is the fifth article of the treaty:

His Majesty the Emperor of Austria transfers to his Majesty the King of Prussia all the rights he acquired under the peace of Vienna on the 30th of October, 1864, to the Duchies of Holstein and Schleswig, with the understanding that the people of the northern district of Schleswig, if by free vote they express a wish to be united to Denmark, shall be ceded to Denmark accordingly.

Eight years have passed since this promise was given, and the Danes have not ceased to ask for its fulfillment. It has never been fulfilled, and it is not likely to be.

A WORD TO MINERS.

The yield of gold and silver on the Pacific slope during the past 25 years amounts to $1,583,644,984. Of this sum California produced $1,094,919,098; Nevada, $221,403,412; Utah, $18,527,537; Montana, $119,808,447; Idaho, $57,249,197; Colorado, $30,000,000; and Oregon and Washington Territory together, $25,504,250. Besides this Arizona and New Mexico have commenced a yield which will greatly increase with settlement and safe and cheap communication with that country. British Columbia has furnished $9,000,000. This is the result of but a quarter of a century, and the amount steadily increases every year. The effects of such an accumulation to the wealth of the world cannot be comprehended. It has reduced the value of gold one-half. That is, it has so increased the value of everything else that it takes two dollars now to buy what one dollar purchased 25 years ago. It is a complaisant thought in the minds of many Eastern people that they have, on the whole, done better than those who came West 20 years ago. They will tell you how their lands and stocks have doubled and quadrupled in value; but not many of them realize that because in the far West, in deep ravines, in tunnels, drifts and shafts, strong men were wearing out their lives, they unconsciously have been gaining wealth, that every dollar they have accumulated is indeed a certificate, surely affirming that those who left them, and sought this Coast, in the years gone by, did not come in vain.

No army ever brought home such conquests of treasures; no host ever before so changed the face of things. It is almost as though nature had pa[illegible] through another of t[illegible] periods which geologists mark, and brought its corresponding change upon the face of the earth. Because of the miners' work the great city by the Golden Gate has burst upon the world. Half the magnificence of the cities of the Eastern St[illegible]; half the luxuries enjoyed by the people of the East are due to the same cause. Our miners' toil has built new palaces in Europe, and made more [illegible] the mosques and Harems of Egypt and of Asia. It was because of their labor that [illegible] the great rebellion came, the Gov[illegible] [illegible] security for the ultimate redemption of her debts was manifest. It was because of th[illegible] that, when M. Thiers called on the pe[illegible] France for five milliards, from Field Ma[illegible] to stable-boy, from Prince to [illegible], [illegible] able to unearth their purses of [illegible] and of gold, and to pour them into their country's coffers, while the world, astonished, looked on. While this has been done for the world at large, a wilderness has been subdued, flourishing states created, and an empire in extent opened to settlement.

This is no fancy picture. Indeed it is but a meager outline of what these brave men have done. Books might be filled with records of what they have suffered and endured. Strange tales could be written of the struggles of great hearts, toiling through the years, while youth fled, and hopes which it was but just and natural to nurture, one by one sickened and died; and of the thou[illegible]nds who, their natures unappreciated, their depth and worth concealed by a rough exterior and brusque address; of those for whom no record is kept, as year by year they grow weary, and folding their rough robes around them pass, uncomplainingly, away. Surely these men should not be forgotten; surely the people of the whole country should think of them kindly; and the Government ought to listen with patient ear to their petitions, especially when we consider it is not often their wont to ask for anything except a fair field within which to work, and six feet of barren soil in which to sleep when his long day's work is done.

George Washington Bowen, of Providence, who claimed to be the illegitimate son of Madame Jumel, and heir to her valuable estate, has not only been defeated in litigation, but is likely to lose the comfortable property which he had accumulated by a long life of industry. E. R. Hoar, of Massachusetts, has sued Bowen in the United St[illegible] Circuit Court of Rhode Island, for counsel fees, and the case is on trial before Judge Knowles. When Bowen began the Jumel suit he owned real estate worth probably $30,000, which has been slowly dwindling down until he is now comparatively poor.

The aggregate receipts from all sources at the recent State Fair amounted to about $14,000.

OUR RIVER'S NAME.

WALLAMET, WALLAMETTE OR WILLAMETTE.

The venerable Archbishop of Oregon, Very Reverend F. N. Blanchet, upon the question of how the name of our river is spelled, has written the following communication to Governor Grover which we have been requested to publish. Owing to the discussion going on in the press and elsewhere, it will be read with interest coming from the source it does.

PORTLAND, Oct. 7, 1874.

To His Excellency L. F. Grover, Governor of Oregon—SIR: Allow me to call your attention to a question of some importance, in reference to the name of our river and its beautiful valley, on account of its being spelled and written in three different manners. Formerly and and for many years it was written and called "Wallamette." Others pretend that it should be simply written "Wallamet." In later years, its first syllable "Wall" was changed into "Will." To know which of these three is the true and genuine name of our river, is, by no means, a useless and superfluous question. No one should be indifferent to its being examined and settled. The adjustment of the question has been neglected rather too long; it should not be delayed any longer; for, in a few years more, the old pioneers, having disappeared, all chance of settling it shall be, then, lost for ever. In fault of any others, I offer to give my experience, and say what I know concerning it, in the hope that justice may be done to the prior right.

The knowledge, then, I have in the [illegible], forces me to declare that "Willamette," as it is now written, was formerly a name unheard and unknown, at Fort Vancouver, where the early Catholic missionaries, Father Demers and myself, arrived Nov. 24, 1838; and that "Wallamette" is the only name which they heard spoken of, and learned, on their arrival, from the H. B. Co's officers, the employees, and from the Indians themselves, which name they received and adopted, making use of it henceforth in their correspondence at home and abroad, until about 1850, when the name of "Willamette" did generally prevail. For the truth of this fact, I refer to the testimony of the Protestant ministers; who entered Oregon in 1830, and some subsequent years, and adopted also, in their correspondence, the same orthography of the name "Wallamette." And other evidence of previous and higher time, may be found to the same effect, in the following fact: The two expeditions of Mr. Astor, to Oregon, in 1810, one by sea, and the other by land, contained no few French Canadians. In 1838 some of them, M[illegible]. Laframboise, Lucier, Labonte, Gervais, were still living. Having learned in early time, from the Indians, the name of our river, they never called it in my presence but by the name of "Wallamette." [illegible] to the final syllable "mette" and "met," they are [illegible] French; the first of which some one of the early officers or Chief Factors of the H. B. Co., speaking French, would prefer before the other one. As to "Wall," "Walla Walla," "Wallamet," these expressions seem to have been hallowed among the Indians of this country as meaning some great and big names, as they are to be found and repeated elsewhere, at a great distance in Eastern Oregon. Some one object to the syllable "Wall," because it sounds too much like the Indian accent, or savors too much of it; but if this should be an objection we must also do away with "Wasco," "Walla Walla," "Wallula," because they savor as much; and also give up the Spanish and numerous French na[illegible] to be found all over the country.

Other proofs are to be found in the books of the H. B. Co., whose officers [illegible] the appellation "Walla[illegible]"

In their writings and [illegible] the missionaries and others; thus, th[illegible] bills of supply to our mission, from 1839 up to 1847, had always the heading: "Catholic Mission in 'Wallamette,'" "Catholic Mission at the Falls." My letters and those of the Catholic missionaries, from 1839 to 1847, were always dated from "St. Paul, 'Wallamette.'" The Protestant missionaries had no other practice: thus Rev. Gustavus Hines, one of the expedition by sea of 1840, in his history of Oregon, (edited in New York, 1859,) on all occasions calls our river with its original and peculiar name of "Wallamette." Thus, also, Dr. Elijah White, one of the expedition, by land, of 1836, when writing as Sub-Agent of Indian Affairs, to the Secretary of War, in 1843, always dated his letters from "Wallamette" valley.

Next and last comes the strong, incontestable and undeniable testimony of the people in their earliest attempts to form a Provisional Government, and of the representatives assembled to frame laws. That testimony is found in the precious manuscriptal records, giving the names of the places where they met. In the meeting held in Champoeg, February 17th and 18th, 1841, those present are thus called: "The inhabitants of Wallamette valley." In the meeting held in the same place, March 4th, 1873, they are called "the inhabitants of the Wallamette settlement." Oregon City, the place where the Legislative Assembly used to meet, is there called in the same record, sometimes "Wallamette," and other times "Wallamette Falls." Let those precious records be produced, and they will plainly prove the bulk of the fact here advanced.

Now as to the second manner of writing the name of our river, viz: "Wallamet," unable to say when and where it originated and began to be used, I can only refer to the History of Oregon (edited 1870), by Mr. W. H. Gray, who was one of the expedition, by land, of 1836, and that of the River of the West, (edited 1871), compiled by Mr. Joseph L. Meek, who entered O[illegible] in 1842, [illegible] use they both shorten the name of our river by cutting off the last syllable "te," while they preserve the orthography of the first one, "Wall." In the first instance the omission of "te" is a change, and a reformation warranted by no tradition nor authority whatsoever. In the second instance, they show themselves perfectly true to the long tradition they had witnessed and practiced themselves for many years. Such as bear testimony from such early pioneers, is an additional and irrefutable proof in favor of the old and genuine name of our river.

I will now pass to the third manner of spelling and writing the name of our river with "Will" inst[illegible] of "Wall," viz: "Willamette." This change or mutilation originated among the numerous emigrants of 1842, and subsequent periods, who, mistaking "Will" for "Wall," began to use the English word and spread the change among their neighbors. The Oregon Spectator and Oregon Argus, ignoring the tradition of the old name innocently propagated it. Hence its gradual and general use, superceding the original and time-honored name. Had some of the early comers and old pioneers remonstrated and protested against the innovation, it might have been stopped; but none did anything. Hence the success of the new name, and so much so that, this becoming a conviction among the learned new comers the honorable business men who were employed by the Government, in 1853, to publish our manuscriptal records finding therein, everywhere, the name "Wallamette," they considered it as a name altogether obsolete; they, therefore replaced it by the anglo Indian name of "Willamette" the proof of such a change may be seen in the Oregon archives pp. 5, 8. 12, 14, 16, 26, 38, 64, 59, 90, 154, which I cannot help regretting as often as I meet it.

Now that I have demonstrated that "Wallamette" has the prior right, and is the genuine name of our river, and that "Wallamet" and "Willamette" lack in their pretensions, I would ask: Is there still any chance for restoring to our river and its valley, this old and time honored name? If there be, please make use of the present to obtain it.

I am most respectfully, Excellency,
Your obedient servant,
F. N. BLANCHET,
Archbishop of Oregon.

Gen. Devin is to [illegible] temporary [illegible] of the military district of New Mexico in Gen. Gr[illegible]'s [illegible].

MILITARY NOTES.

On the 26th instant Lieutenant Moore will proceed from this city to Fort Boise, I. T.

The leave of absence for seven days—to take effect on the 11th instant—granted 2d Lieutenant Harry DeW. Moore, 21st Infantry, is extended eight days.

Major John Green, 1st Cavalry, will accompany the Department Commander on a tour of inspection to Fort Tow[illegible]nd, Washington Territory, and the different Indian R[illegible]tions in that vicinity, and return to Portland.

"Captain Joseph B. Campbell, 4th Artillery, is appointed to act as inspector on certain subsistence stores at Sitka, Alaska Territory, for which 1st Lieutenant William R. Quinan, 4th Artillery, post com[illegible]ry of subsistence, is accountable.

THURSDAY MORNING OCTOBER 22 1874

WHAT THE PEOPLE EXPECT

The time is rapidly drawing near when the Eighth Biennial Session of the Legislature of Oregon will adjourn, and though its members in the main have seemed determined to work for the interest of the people and have used every effort to secure the passage of such laws as the wants of the country and the exigencies of the times demand there are still some things undone which the people require at the hands of the Legislature which, if not secured render it highly probable that when the members return to their constituencies some of them will find that the places which now know them will know them no more forever"

Whatever may be the impressions of the Legislature derived from the reports of the committees upon the financial system, according to which our State and county Governments are conducted, the belief is abroad in the land that the people of Oregon pay too much taxes, that the task of supporting the long list of officers from the Governor of the State down to the last precinct constable is one heavier than ought to be patiently borne, and it is expected that all expedient measures will be enacted to lighten this burden The people do not want any spirit of parsimony regardless of expediency to govern, but they look for reform Constitutional salaries in Oregon are by no means exorbitant, but in many cases perquisite and fee-taking has either been allowed or authorized, until in some instances where officers are strictly only entitled to hundreds, they receive thousands At this day no man's services in an official capacity are worth what some of them receive, and whether the people pay these large sums through the State or County Treasuries as salaries or fees, or directly to the [illegible] in the way [illegible], it is nevertheless wrong for them to be compelled to pay more than the services are worth It matters much less to the taxpayer whether a Democrat, a Republican or an Independent signs his tax receipt, than it does whether he pays ten, [illegible] or thirty mills on the dollar of his property to support the Government.

Let the State officers and Clerks and Sheriffs of the several counties be fairly, if not liberally paid, but not overpaid, let ample provision be made for the care of the unfortunate insane, and the judicious management and safe-keeping of criminals, a liberal policy pursued in the encouragement of enterprises tending to the development of the resources of our State and the fostering of its varied industries, and then, however such "rings" and speculators may feel chagrinned at the failure of some of their pet schemes or personal aims, the people will approve the work of those to whom they entrusted their interests at the last election, and the present week will witness the close of what is perhaps the best, as it is the most remarkably constituted Legislative Assembly that ever met in Oregon

IDAHO POLITICS.

The Republican Convention of Idaho Territory at Boise City, last week, adopted a very sensible platform in the main, introduced by a preamble to the effect that the people of a Territory are not permitted to vote for the nation's rulers, nor a representative in its councils, it was a waste of time for the Convention to expend its energies in the discussion of national politics. The Convention resolved that the Constitution of the United States should be amended to do away with the electoral college, and allow all the people in the Territories as well as in the States to vote direct for President and Vice President, in favor of a reduction of [illegible] of officials to correspond with the services performed, asked aid of Congress in the construction of the P. D. and S L Railroad, opposed the removal from the Territory or the abolishment of the United States assay office at Boise City, and equally opposed the abandonment of Fort Boise as a military post, denounced the course of the last Legislative Assembly in refusing to [illegible], giving to each county in the Territory its proper representation in the Legislative Assembly, [illegible] legal voters therein, commended the course of Hon John Hailey, present Delegate in Congress, a strong Democrat; and finally wound up by making no nomination, but indorsing Governor Bennett, an independent candidate for Congressional Delegate, and declaring their purpose to ignore, in the coming election, all partisan politics [illegible] exclusively for questions of local and Territorial interests. Such action on the part of a Republican Convention will perhaps not be pleasing to professional politicians and hangers on, but it will strike a chord in the heart of the independent, thinking masses which will give forth no uncertain sound. The day is fast passing away when the American people, in any section, can be made to believe that the best way to promote their own interests is to follow the lead of [illegible], whose sole aim is place or pelf. Truly, "party feeling is fast dying out in the rural districts, as well as everywhere else, where the people see the promotion of their own interests and the welfare of the country in the direction of independent action

A MODEL CLUB

The little town of Alto, which is somewhere in the State of Louisiana, has its grievances with the balance of the South and the rest of mankind. Alto has a club which we are assured is not the original one that killed Captain Cook—but a genuine Democratic club infinitely more dangerous than the one handled by the savages of the South seas. The club publishes to the world what it regards as "the sacred [illegible] political duty of its members." Here we have the political creed of the Alto Democracy

'That we regard it the sacred and political duty of every member of this club to discountenance and socially proscribe all white men who unite themselves with the [illegible] party and to supplant every political opponent in all his vocations by the employment and support of those who ally themselves with the White Man's party, and we pledge ourselves to exert our energies and use our means to the consummation of this end

While we deplore the events which lead men to adopt and proclaim to the world such ideas, we cannot but think them absurd and unwise if they expect by these blatant resolutions to better their condition or to free themselves from the evils of which they make such long and loud complaint. While there are doubtless a good many men calling themselves Republicans who will 'damn themselves to everlasting fame," the South cannot, as the Atlantic News says, hand their names to everlasting infamy by such means as the Alto Club uses

THE JOINT CONVENTION

The Joint Convention of the two branches of the Legislature yesterday performed its work without much delay, and did it perhaps as well as if it had taken up a whole day or more as some of the members, especially the senior Senator from Multnomah, seemed desirous of doing Some men are always opposed to going into an election unless opportunity is afforded them to talk over matters and oftener to fix things up" In this case there was no need of time, as it had long been known that the officers named were to be chosen, and no doubt the various candidates had had their merits extensively discussed So the Convention incontinently squelched all filibustering and did in three and a half hours what has usually consumed nearly as many days of the precious time of our Oregon Legislatures, electing in that time three Pilot Commissioners, State Librarian three Capitol Commissioners and a Register of State Lands at La Grande Quick work and pretty well done

An Indiana paper just previous to the recent election in that State said

It is one of the best results of the present weakening of partisan ties, the spread of independent principles, and the growing influence of an independent press that Republicans and Democrats have alike been forced to select candidates of such irreproachable lives and such thorough political honesty as the eminent citizens who head their respective tickets this year

The same result has been observable all over the country No one can pretend that the independent course of a large part of the press and people has not been the cause of vast improvement in the tone of politics of all parties, and particularly in the style of men brought forward for office.

As will be seen by our report of the Senate proceedings of yesterday in this issue the first thing that body will have to do this morning will be to elect a President vice Mr Cochran, who was suddenly called home by an accident to one of his children It was thought he would not return during the session

FROM THE CAPITAL

SALEM, October 21 1874

For the first time since the evening performance of the Woman Suffrage farce, the gallery of the House was crowded yesterday afternoon The spectators were Salem people, for the greater part, and the discussion of

THE CAPITOL APPROPRIATION BILL

Was the attraction. There were three propositions before the House, all of them from the Committee on Public Buildings, to whom had been referred a bill appropriating $110,000 for the completion of the Capitol"

Mr Bruce, of Benton, submitted a substitute conveying an appropriation of $6,000 for covering in the building with a [illegible] roof

Mr [illegible] of [illegible], [illegible] minority, recommended the amendment of the original bill so that the appropriation should not exceed $37,000

Mr Reed of Marion, presented a minority report recommending that one mill of the military tax be set apart for the completion of the building The discussion, which occupied the entire afternoon session, took place on a motion to adopt Reed's report. Nothing remarkable occurred in the debate. Several of the members made a good deal of noise and the gallery was filled with an insufferable stench That was all I noticed I forget, one of the members from Benton (Bruce, I believe) appealed to the House not to strip his people of the necessaries of life in order to indulge Salem in the luxury of a State Capitol. He told of a great many of his constituents whose children were suffering the pangs of hunger and cold because their parents were too poor to buy bread and clothing Altogether, his story of Granger life in Benton county was dismal

Bradshaw of Yamhill made a strong speech in favor of Reed's report and late in the afternoon the House adopted that report This morning the bill making the appropriation of one mill from the military tax passed. It is generally believed that it will pass the Senate, also

THE INSANE.

The status between Drs. Kinney and Hawthorne remains in statu quo. The House yesterday temporarily tabled the Senate bill awarding the contract to the latter at $5 50 and a good many knowing ones assert that there is a positive majority against it. Kinney has strong backing, and his friends don't suffer any grass to grow under their feet Hawthorne's friends are diligent and very confident

"OWNED BY CHINESE CHEAP LABOR"

These, I believe, are exactly the words used in Mr Fidler's memorial to Congress asking for the abrogation of the Burlingame treaty The House smiled during the reading, but good naturedly adopted the memorial A memorial of similar import was offered the Senate, by Mr Van Cleave, several days since and was referred to the Committee on Federal Relations

The Senate bill to prevent the

SALE OF LIQUORS ON ELECTION DAYS

Passed the House yesterday morning Under the provisions of this act it is unlawful for any person to sell, give away or otherwise dispose of intoxicating liquors on the day of any general or special election etc. The penalties are sufficient, and the supporters of the act are confident that it will do great good

THE WINNEMUCCA BILL.

After a hard fight the Winnemucca railroad bill has passed both Houses and gone to the Governor In the Senate, yesterday afternoon it passed without debate by the following vote

Nays—Crystal, Offield, Owens and Tolin

THE DIVISION OF DOUGLAS COUNTY

Is again before the Senate Several citizens of that county are here working like bees for and against the bill introduced by Senator Clark yesterday

THE PENITENTIARY.

Senator Barnes, of Wasco, has introduced a bill providing for placing the management of the Penitentiary in the hands of three Inspectors This morning the House received a majority report from the Joint Committee on Retrenchment and Reform, recommending that H. B 88 do pass This bill provides for the election by the Legislature in joint convention of a Superintendent of the Penitentiary

Messrs. Townsend and Galloway made a minority report against H B 88, and in favor of the [illegible] of H B 104 The latter bill makes the Superintendent of the Penitentiary elective by the people at general elections and provides that the first election of this officer shall be held in 1876

CASCADES CANAL AND LOCKS COMPANY

Senator [illegible] proposes to introduce a bill incorporating a Company under this name I understand that R. C Kinney and several other heavy capitalists are to be named as incorporators No subsidy is asked from the State

THE THIRD OREGON

A bill authorizing the Secretary of State to purchase one hundred and fifty copies of the fourth volume of Oregon Reports, was amended in the Senate so as to read one hundred copies and passed to a third reading I can't imagine what the Senate means by skipping over from the Second to the Fourth Oregon So far as I can learn there is no Third Oregon in existence recognized by the bar I have an indistinct recollection of a volume of nisi prius decisions compiled by Judge Upton but have supposed his ex Honor had long since got over the harmless little idiosyncracy of calling it the Third Oregon That volume is likely to be lonesome for a few years for the Senate bill expressly provides that the forthcoming book shall contain decisions of the Supreme Court and nothing else An amendment correcting the erroneous title of the proposed work is now in order But that can be done after the passage of the bill perhaps

THE RECEPTION

By Governor Grover and lady at the Executive Mansion last evening was a handsome affair There were present the members and officers of the two Houses and two or three hundred residents of Salem The guests were received by His Excellency and his excellent lady The entertainment was superb and the occasion throughout was the pleasantest and most enjoyable social event that has occurred in Salem for years Among the guests I noticed Hon J W Nesmith and family, Hon G W Colby of California all the officers of State with their families Mayor Henry Failing and many other gentlemen from Portland The ladies were handsomely dressed while the gentlemen, I rejoice to say went home sober every mother's son of them

OUT-DOOR SPORTS.

We are in receipt of the following letter from Mr W M Barker the Umpire in the late game of base ball which was played at Oregon City between the College and Arcadian Clubs, and as so much has been said and written concerning points at issue in this game we publish the letter of the Umpire which embodies his decision of the question Mr Barker says

In giving a decision on the game that took place at Oregon City October 17th I must first state the conditions under which it was ended

There was a man on 1st base, and the striker having hit a ball into the extreme right field, behind the "foul line, which ball was called foul the moment it began to fall, both the man on the 1st base and the striker ran home, and the ball being delivered to the pitcher and by him passed to 1st, the man who was there was given out. This being the third out the College Club were retired with only four runs to their credit

The Arcadians were then called to the bat and were ready to continue the game which the College Club refused to do, unless the men were either allowed to take their places and the man to strike over again or the decision were reversed and the ball called fair

Having declined to consent to either of these propositions the College Club refused to continue the game and left the ground

I will quote Rule II Section 7 When the Umpire calls play ' the game must at once be proceeded with, and the party failing to take their appointed positions in the game within five minutes thereafter, shall forfeit the game All such forfeited games shall be recorded as won by a score of nine runs to none, and the game so won, shall be placed to the credit of the nine ready to continue the game '

With this rule before me I decide that the Arcadians defeated the College club by a score of 9 to 0

Respectfully,
W M BARKER

RULES OF THE GAME

For the benefit of all, we publish the following rules controling the action of the Umpire

The Umpire shall be chosen by the Captains or officers of the two contesting clubs, and he shall determine all disputes and differences between the contesting players which may occur during the game.

The Umpire in a match shall be the sole judge of fair and unfair play and there shall be no appeal from his decisions except through the Judiciary Committee of the National Association of Professional Players

[By this [illegible], the Umpire is empowered to render a decision on every point of play whether specially referred to in the rules or not, he applying the rule of equity in all cases not named in the code or laws of the game.]

The Umpire shall call all wide balls when [illegible] delivered, but not until the ball has pass[illegible] the batsman He shall call all foul balls the moment they are seen to be falling outside of the foul-ball line But he shall call no fair ball unless appealed to for a decision

Public attention is called to the professional card of C M Carter, appearing in another column.

Clark & Henderson publish in another column their interesting proclamation to the public of Portland and the ladies especially This well known and, we might add, popular firm have just laid in such a magnificent stock of goods as to completely bewilder, if not to say dazzle, the average Portland belle Every lady who ventures to enter the store of Messrs Clark & Henderson will find it no easy task to leave without purchasing some of their elegant goods They call special attention to their assortment of fall goods, which is now so complete in every department. Ladies will find that they can purchase every article desired from [illegible] silk d[illegible] down to a thimble and at prices astonishingly low too Don t fail to give them an early call Read their card

A CHALLENGE.

A meeting of the members of the Pioneer B B Club was held last evening at which time and place it was determined to send the following challenge

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

With this we hand you challenge to Arcadian B B C As the Arcadians now claim the championship of Oregon for 1874, we take this method of protesting against the same until first they shall have completed their series with us, the first game having been played under protest and decided by the Clipper null and void Several endeavors have been made by the Pioneers to complete the series, but without s[illegible], hence our motive for an open challenge.

A Skillful Oculist —Miss Mary Jones of this city has been afflicted with sore eyes from [illegible] by the small pox During the last spring, Miss Jones had a severe attack of the measles, which left her very nearly blind Since in July she has been under the treatment of Dr Applewhite of this city and when we saw her last (yesterday) her eyes were very nearly if not quite well, one of them showing no signs of disease while the other exhibited a very slight redness The doctor certainly performed a remarkable cure as the affliction had become constitutional Miss Jones and her aunt Mrs Graham, informed us that her eyes had not been so well since she was an infant —Benton Democrat Oct 10

SURVEY OF THE UPPER COLUMBIA

Gen Michler received a few days since the following letter from Mr R. A Habersham, the assistant engineer in charge of the surveys which are being made along the Columbia river between the Cascades and Dalles The letter bears date of Upper Cascades, October 17th 1874

I have finished to-day the survey of the river from the upper to the lower basin, a distance of 6¼ miles, determining the shore line on both sides, the islands and all rocks above the surface of the water also the profile of the river, taken at short intervals, from bench marks which I established on the 6th inst., at the surface line I have also made some soundings both above and below the rapids and commenced a survey of a neck of land on the south side of the rapids, which in my judgment, will be the site of the principal work to be done here. This survey I have still to complete, with such minuteness of detail as will allow a close estimate to be made of the cost of any plan which you may decide upon as best and to sound the channel, and locate sunken rocks and bars from the rapids to the lower landing a distance of 4½ miles.

This will take me about two weeks, if the good weather continues. After this week I will have completed most of the instrumental work and can reduce the party to the number required for the soundings and [illegible] office work

My reports so far have been merely statements of the progress of the work When I shall have completed the survey of the Cascades, I will present, with the field maps and profiles of both surveys, a full report embodying all the information which I have obtained

TO THE LADIES.

Miss Darry dressmaker begs leave to announce to the ladies that she has returned to the city and will be pleased to have them call on Thursday Oct. 15th (opening day) at her room No 11 Dekum s Building over Clark & Henderson s

TO THE LADIES OF PORTLAND.

MRS W N WALLACE will open a first class DRESSMAKING ESTABLISHMENT Oct. 1st in one of the new and Elegant Rooms on Stark Street, between First and Second at which place she would respectfully solicit your patronage

Some years ago there was much discussion among experts upon the various Hair Dyes and Cosmetics offered the public. It was truthfully claimed that thousands of females were paralyzed by the unguents and powders which unprincipled dealers offered as the means of removing facial disfigurements All such merely covered deformities without infusing health to the skin The only safe beauty restorer is HAGAN S MAGNOLIA BALM.

'It will be all one a hundred years hence is poor comfort to preach to the pale invalid and sufferer—health is what he needs—how can he secure it? What ails him? Only indigestion—indigestion is a noun of multitude and like charity covers a multitude of sins. How can it be cured? By using the world s remedy—PLANTATION BITTERS.

Dr Bergh would immortalize his name as the benefactor of the brute creation if he would visit the various legislatures which will meet this year and get a law pass[illegible] making it obligatory upon every horse keeper to use the MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT Nor would the work be difficult, because so well is it known and widely used, that a score of official notification would be suffi[illegible] When once introduced it will hold its way right along Besides this Liniment is equally efficacious in human dis[illegible]

Henry VI—People say, that our Ladies have abominable styles of head dresses What would they think if they could have seen a belle of King Henry s reign A quaint writer says "The caul of net work into which the hair had been gathered at the sides of the face became extended into large squares on each cheek and the veil which was thrown over them gave them the appearance of Horned Head Dresses The horn shape was imparted by means of two wire horns around which the Hair was curled Surely our ladies do not thus outrage good taste but by the use of LYON'S KATHAIRON render their looks beautiful and luxuriant.

ANOTHER OPPORTUNITY OFFERED

The Surgeons of the NATIONAL SURGICAL INSTITUTE will visit the Pacific Coast on the 15th day of November and remain until the 15th day of December 1874—one month—at their old building No 319 Bush street between Kearny and Montgomery San Francisco

This is a chance for help which every sufferer should take advantage of The hundreds of patients treated by them during their former visits are all rapidly being benefitted and cured They treat successfully all cases of Paralysis all deformities of the Face Spine and Limbs Diseased Joints Diseased Eyes and Ears Catarrh Private Diseases, Diseases of Females Piles Fistula etc No hopeless cases are undertaken, and it really does seem as if no cases are hopeless in the hands of these skillful surgeons

They are preparing all the machinery necessary for the Swedish Movement Cure Medicated Baths Machinery to equalize the circulation, restore Paralyzed Limbs etc and a much finer outfit of braces and appliances than heretofore All who commence treatment during this visit and the many hundreds now under treatment will have the advantages of all these most effectual means of cure besides some of the surgeons will this time remain to continue their treatment.

Remember the time and place and come as early in the month as possible thus getting the full benefit of their visit

The fall [illegible] has fairly set in, and with it our merchants are opening their new stocks in large quantities Among those who have prepared for the rush we find those well known clothiers, Beck & Waldman who are not behind any in their selections of fall and winter goods They have studied the present wants of customers and accordingly have purchased at the lowest figure with the object of affording their patrons the greatest advantages Boys clothing is a specialty with this house and parents should note the fact.

Don t pay high prices for Hats while they can be obtained at a reasonable figure Among the lat[illegible] additions to the stock of JOHN O NEIL & Co, Clothiers, is a complete line of Hats for the fall and winter season They propose to sell them cheaper than the same have been offered heretofore in this city When you need a new tile bear this in mind The high scale of prices are played out, and O NEIL & Co can prove it. They are opening some new styles in Hats and Clothing Make a note of it before it is too late

NEW ATTRACTIONS —Very few are acquainted with the fact that JOS. KOHN, opposite the First National Bank has just opened a magnificent assortment of Clothing and Furnishing Goods None can but admire the handsome Diagonals, the beautiful Beaver Suits the attractive Cassimeres and other goods now displayed at his large and elegant store He as well as his clerks are accommodating and will gratify the tastes of all who may chance to call Mr Kohn can please you that is morally certain Now is the time to purchase a full suit

I DESIRE TO FURNISH MY TESTIMONY in behalf of Dr. Jayne s excellent medicine, the Expectorant. I have been troubled with Asthma for over two years and it became so bad last fall and winter that I could not walk over twenty rods without sitting down to rest neither could I perform work of any kind. If I chopped wood briskly for five minutes, I would fall down for want of breath so firmly had the disease taken hold of me Finally I was persuaded to try the Expectorant and procuring a bottle from Messrs Hawley & Eichell of this place I commenced using it After taking in all four bottles I am now able to do as much work in a day as any man in my neighborhood and my complaint has entirely left me Therefore I cordially recommend this Expectorant to any one troubled with Asthma —HORACE SMEDLEY Fitchburg Mich

For Bronchial, Asthmatic and Pulmonary Complaints Brown s Bronchial Troches manifest remarkable curative properties

THE FOLLOWING LETTER FROM MR MARSH, who is now purchasing in the San Francisco market, will explain itself

GRAND HOTEL, 7th October 1874.

DEAR BRADLEY Arrived safely having had fair average [illegible]. [illegible] to work. First [illegible] on —— Paid them $2,000 on account. Got 3 per cent discount on $1 150 not yet due. Mr —— seemed well pleased said they had heard rather unfavorable accounts of us from Portland merchants going [illegible] too fast [illegible] too low, [illegible] the trade etc Explained the evident animus of such statements Wanted to call round on the other houses before buying but Mr —— would not let me stir—so started in and bought a splendid lot of stuff at really extraordinary low prices. Cleared out 63 pieces of English [illegible] and ladies' cloth at 95c—regular price $1 20 These we must sell at $1 per yard and beat the wholesale houses they can t touch them at that figure There is a temporary decline in cotton goods so secured 16 cases leading brands muslins and sheetings Selling these as usual at cost will give us a splendid advantage over all the other [illegible]. Got a fine lot Bed spreads 20 per cent. under regular price. In Blankets I made a special hit. The house had 12 bales on consignment, and being agents for the —— mills did not wish to exhibit them in competition Bought the lot. You may think this rather stiff but when you see the splendid quality of these goods you will at once concede this a magnificent purchase Mark them low and make a noise. Do not let the country storekeepers gobble all these up as they did the last cheap lots keep them for our regular customers Got two job lines in Dress Goods to sell at 25@37½c per yard—30 per cent. less than cost of importing Secured two original cases of the Buffalo brand silk warp Alpacas at agent s rates. These range in price from 25c to $1 The time is past with us for buying a piece or two Cleared out several job lines in Flannels Table Linen Napkins Towels etc, all very low Also several other goods that can best be purchased at this house Dined and wined with Mr —— Splendid house magnificently furnished Met ——

Tuesday—Called early on —— Paid our account in full Same story as to reports. The fact is, the —— evidently "went for us" in very blackness of heart but our name is a tower of strength that the shot of accident nor dart of chance can neither graze nor pierce. The robbed that smiles steals something from the thief, and we can well smile at these attempts to jostle a brother bearing his road on the rough road of life. The heavy cash remittance we make regularly stun them all here They say the Portland men are generally 'long winded Our getting the Granger trade is also a surprise to many Purchased a fine lot of Shawls Hosiery Men s Shirts Pants, Ladies Merino Vests Woolen Jackets Trimmings and all fancy goods at this house They were most anxious to sell and as they made considerable reductions in prices I bought largely Send you invoices of land Goods go by John L Stephens The shipment from England will arrive by next Panama steamer The Clothing Hats etc from New York come by rail When all these are opened out our stock will be the finest on the coast. Will back us up to any extent. He knows we possess the powers ordained to last. His business has doubled this year This is truly a Golden State, with its golden mines, golden grain and the golden wealth of living manhood and womanhood pouring in at the rate of three hundred daily from all parts of the civilized and uncivilized world Would that we had railroads to enable us to share this prosperity,

THE NEW GERMAN CURRENCY

[Berlin Letter to the Chicago Tribune]

The people of Germany are continually reaping the benefits of national union It is not alone in the sense of security against foreign interference and the strength they now [illegible] borders against the restless French or the grasping Austrians that the advantages of the union are felt but in many other ways For example Their heterogeneous and confusing systems of weights and measures have been replaced by one uniform system—that of the French having been adopted Instead of forty arbitrary irregular conflicting standards they now have the simple, beautiful French decimal system of weights and measures throughout all Germany within the bounds of the Empire

But if their weights and measures were heretofore bad, their various monetary systems are worse and might be called

CONFUSION WORSE CONFOUNDED

It is simply impossible for a traveler ever to get through his head the relative value of the dozen kinds of coinage and bank notes in circulation in Germany The natives of each State understand their own absurd system of money but there are not many Germans who can commencing at Dresden and passing through Munich Stuttgart, Carlsruhe Strasburg Cologne, Frankfort, Hanover and Hamburg to Berlin comprehend the changing names and changing values of the thalers florins guilders guldens groschens kreuzers and pfennings marcs, stivers and Hamburg shillings all mixed up with French francs on the western and Austrian florins on the eastern borders It is truly a fearfully wonderfully made currency One cannot even judge of the value of the silver pieces by their size on account of the great difference in the quantity of alloy with which they are mixed

But all this wretched mongrel mixture of conflicting coinage, with its multitude of names,

WILL BE ABOLISHED

on and after the 1st day of January A D 1875 which is only a few months hence and substituted by a decimal system, of which the marc will be the unit, The value of the marc is almost that of the English shilling or the American quarter dollar A 20 marc gold piece is almost identical in weight and size with the British pound sterling Calling the the latter equal to $4 86 American money, the 20-mark piece is worth about $4.83. The shilling is about 24¼ cts, and the mark is a fraction less than 24 cents Three marks equals 1 thaler which is worth in Prussia about 71½ cents The reason the value of the mark was not made the same as the British shilling or the French franc was the desire to render it easy to reckon in thalers which for centuries have been the standard of Prussian values The transition from old the currency to the new

WILL BE MADE EASY

in Prussia and all parts of Germany because every German knows the value of a thaler, and three marks will equal one thaler

In the new currency ten groschens will make one mark and ten pfennings one groschen, which will correspond very closely with the present value of those coins in Prussia The groschen is now worth about 2½ cents, and after January, will be worth 2 4 10 cents, and the pfenning, of which 100 will make a mark, will be worth about ¼ cent each In turn, American travelers will only have to keep in mind that the mark is almost the same as a quarter-dollar or British shilling and that 20 marks are about equal to a half eagle or a pound sterling Bavaria is permitted to retain her mint, and has been coining her portion of the French plunder into gold 10 and 20 mark pieces, so that the new gold coin has already made its appearance Next winter about $200 000 000 of heterogeneous silver coins will be withdrawn from circulation and the vaults of the banks, and replaced by the new decimal system of coinage above described, and its introduction will be a great public blessing and will save German school children, in the future all the trouble and bother to which [illegible] and mothers were subjected in computing values in pounds, shillings pence and farthings

Another reform adopted since the establishment of the Empire is the formation and adoption of a

UNIFORM CRIMINAL CODE OF LAWS

For all Germany Previous to the Empire, each of the forty States had its own special criminal code but these diverse systems have been thrown away, and a new one adopted for all Germany The Saxon code was taken as the basis and improved upon by adding to it the best provisions found in the code of the other States A German lawyer has now to learn only one code of criminal law and practice, which enables him to practice in the criminal courts of the Empire.

CIVIL CODE OF LAW AND PROCEDURE

For the whole Empire They have it nearly completed and will submit it to the Council of State before the next meeting of the Imperial Parliament The Prussian statutes were taken on the basis of the new code of civil laws and are being rewritten and amended by incorporating the best provisions found in the statutes of the other States So that Germany will commence the new year with a uniform decimal system of money, and with a uniform simplified code of civil law to replace the forty imperfect old systems which have confused her Judges and perplexed her lawyers Who will say, after this, that Germany is not progressing in the science of Government as well as of war?

AN INTERESTING DOCUMENT

In an old fashioned wooden frame bearing the inscription, "S Brand, Craver and Gilder, No 27 High Street, Edinburgh" but exhibiting no other marks by which its age could be decided was recently found the following document Apart from any historical value which may be claimed for it the description is perfect in its simplicity, and presents the picture, which is painted by our imaginations of what might have been the aspect of Jesus of Nazareth to the eyes of the generation that beheld him walking in their midst The Epistle is said to have been taken by Napoleon I from the public records of the city of Rome

Letter to Publius Lentulus to the Senate of Rome Concerning Jesus Christ.

It being the usual custom of Roman Governors to advise the Senate and People of such material things as happened in their Provinces, in the days of the Emperor Tiberius Cæsar Publius Lentulus, President of Judea wrote the following Epistle to the Senate concerning our Saviour:

THERE is these days a Man of great virtue named JESUS CHRIST, who is yet living amongst us, and of the People is accepted for a Prophet but His own Disciples call Him THE SON OF GOD He raiseth the dead and cureth all manner of diseases A man of stature somewhat tall and comely, with a very reverend countenance, such as the beholders may both love and fear—His hair, of the colour of a chesnut full ripe, and plain the ears, but thence downward is more orient curling and waving about his shoulders—in the midst of his head is seam or partition of his hair after the manner of the Nazarites—His forehead plain and very delicate—His face without spot or wrinkle beautified with a lovely red—His beard thickish in color like the hair of his head not very long, but forked—His look innocent and mature—His eyes, gray clear and quick—In reproving he is terrible—In admonishing courteous and fair-spoken—Pleasant in conversation, mixed with gravity—It cannot be remembered that any have seen him laugh—But many have seen him weep—In proportion of body most excellent—His hands and arms delectable to behold—In speaking very temperate modest and wise—A MAN for his singular Beauty surpassing the Children of men

BISHOP LEE AND HIS SON

ANOTHER REMARKABLE COINCIDENCE—A SINGULAR DREAM

A private letter from Davenport printed in the Boston Transcript gives the following curious circumstance in connection with the death of the late Bishop Lee of Iowa

We have been very anxious for the last two weeks over the illness of Bishop Lee which terminated in his death on Saturday morning The whole community are saddened by the event. Some two weeks ago he got up in the night and took a bath and on returning to his room he made a misstep and stepped off a long flight of stairs and landed at the foot with a tremendous crash, as he was very heavy weighing over two hundred pounds It aroused the whole family, and Mr I[illegible] and Carrie sprang from their beds and each holding a candle went to see what had happened and found the Bishop lying on the floor of the entry He got up however without aid and seemed to have received no injury except a few slight bruises, though his right hand was a little bruised.

Mr H and my self called on him two days after and while telling us of the circumstance of the fall he mentioned this coincidence He had a letter in his hand which he had just received from his son Henry, living at Kansas City His son wrote "Are you well, for last night I had a dream that troubles me I heard a crash and standing up said to my wife 'Did you hear that crash?' I dreamed that father had a fall and was dead I got up and looked at my watch and it was 2 o clock I could not sleep again So vivid was the dream And it made him anxious to hear from home

"The bishop said he was not superstitious but he thought it remarkable that Henry should have had the dream at the very hour of the same night that the accident occurred The difference in the time there and here is just 15 minutes and it was quarter past two by his watch, making it at the same moment It was as if he had actually heard the fall And the fall finally caused the bishop s death His hand became intensely painful and gangrene set in which after two weeks of suffering, terminated his life. We are none of us Spiritualists as you know but surely facts like this must go far to make us realize that there is a basis of truth for their hypothesis of spiritual faculties resident in man. How did Henry Lee become cognizant of the accident to his father?

There is but a meager amount of transactions in our local finance market taking place the large drafts made the past ten days for moving the wheat surplus having rendered it necessary for bankers in some cases to decline accepting irregular paper which however might be considered good Rates as yet have not materially hardened only a little more conservative policy is being pursued that the season's business may not be pressed nor any opportunities for accommodating regular customers be necessarily passed unimproved Business generally continues to increase in volume with a steadiness in prices for all staple goods and products

Advices from the East claim as one of the most significant signs of a revival of business activity the increasing confidence in the value of railroad property The earnings of the roads have not been large in any part of the country this fall but the Chicago Inter Ocean states that business is now increasing so rapidly on all the Western roads that although the September earnings of this year did not show the usual increase over those of July and August it is probable that there will be a large increase for the present month

Among leading topics of conversation on the streets to day is the announced failure of E E Morgans Sons whose business relations with the Grangers of this State and California are quite extensive and whose failure is likely to cause a good deal of embarrassment [illegible] who have been loading the ships under charter to that firm. Four vessels with their charters have arrived here The St Nicholas has been loaded and has sailed the One about loaded was at Astoria at last accounts the Clara lies at the [illegible] wharf with about 120 tons on board, and the St. Patrick has not [illegible] any portion of her [illegible] between the [illegible] that Morgans [illegible] the wheat in these vessels [illegible] the owners of the wheat taking the chances of a rise in the European markets The result of the failure or suspension upon this arrangement cannot now be definitely stated

The following letter from Capt. Ingersoll the agent of Morgans Sons in this city may partially relieve the fears of loss which our Granger friends may entertain in regard to the matter and therefore we give it publicity

PORTLAND, Oregon October 21 1874

To THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

At a meeting of State Grange, California, to take into consideration the temporary suspension of E E Morgans sons it was unanimously agreed to sustain them as the Granger interests have not nor could not suffer under existing arrangements the suspension being occasioned by matters outside of and independent of Granger interests Yours respectfully,

NATH L INGERSOLL
Agent E E Morgans Sons

The foregoing letter, however hardly throws sufficient light upon the matter as to the extent to which the State Grange of California will "sustain the firm or how it is that the "Granger interests will not suffer We regret that such an event as either the temporary suspension which the letter indicates should occur at this time, when the agricultural interests of the country are being so poorly paid for their labor and products under the best arrangements they can possibly make for shipping their products and for the sake of the agent of the firm here, who has labored assiduously to accommodate the shippers and to carry out the interest of the articles of an agreement between his principals and the farmers. Until full particulars are received it is impossible to determine what will be the consequences of the suspension be it temporary or permanent.

In the meantime our wheat market is unchanged Buyers here are securing all that is necessary for their present wants and some lots are being stored Prices rule as at our last report at $1 35 per cental which is paid for all good lots that offer
